

A photograph of a classroom scene. A female teacher with dark hair, wearing a green top, is leaning over a table. She is interacting with several young children. One child with long dark hair is in the foreground, looking down at something on the table. Other children are visible in the background, some looking towards the teacher. The table is covered with various toys and materials. The background shows a classroom wall with educational posters and a doorway.

Mtel Early Childhood Practice Essay:

Fairness in Educational and Psychological Testing: Examining Theoretical, Research, Practice, and Policy Implications of the 2014 Standards Jessica L. Jonson, Kurt F. Geisinger, 2022-06-01 This book examines scholarship best practice methodologies and examples of policy and practice from various professional fields in education and psychology to illuminate the elevated emphasis on test fairness in the 2014 Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing Together the chapters provide a survey of critical and current issues with a view to broadening and contextualizing the fairness guidelines for different types of tests test takers and testing contexts Researchers and practitioners from school psychology clinical counseling psychology industrial organizational psychology and education will find the content useful in thinking more acutely about fairness in testing in their work The book also has chapters that address implications for policy makers and in some cases the public These discussions are offered as a starting point for future scholarship on the theoretical empirical and applied aspects of fairness in testing particularly given the ever increasing importance of addressing equity in testing

Changing the Course of Failure Sandra Stotsky, 2018-05-18 The basic purpose of this book is to help policy makers at all levels of government understand that 1 widespread adolescent underachievement is not susceptible to solution by educational interventions no matter how much money is allocated to public education and 2 there are unidentified educational and civic costs to focusing on low achievement and to expecting public institutions of education for K 12 and college to solve a growing social problem Many policy makers seem to think that teachers schools are the primary cause of low achievement Educational institutions still cannot solve a non education caused problem and haven t done so for over fifty years despite all the public and private money that has been allocated The book concludes with suggested policies for addressing the damage to public education from gap closing standards and with suggested areas for policy making in order to change the current course of failure for many low achieving students 2017 MTEL Early Childhood (02) Sharon A.
