Multicultural Education in Global Perspectives

Yun-Kyung Cha,Jagdish Gundara,Seung-Hwan Ham,Moosung Lee,2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a global perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion

Perspectives on Music, Education, and Diversity David G. Hebert,Chee-Hoo Lum,2025-07-26 This book is a Festschrift in celebration of Patricia Shehan Campbell s impact for more than six decades as an eminent teacher educator musician and researcher in the fields of music education and ethnomusicology Campbell s oeuvre of scholarly work is wide ranging spanning practical resources for music teachers to facilitate the teaching and learning of different musical cultures of the world to diverse perspectives on the musical cultures of children to the emblematic approach of World Music Pedagogy fleshed out in the Global Music Series with Oxford University Press the Routledge World Music Pedagogy Series and her educational work with Smithsonian Folkways Recordings alongside her extensive work with ethnomusicologists and community musicians and scholars across the world. Notable scholars from the fields of music education, ethnomusicology and community music including Campbell's doctoral graduates and colleagues from across recent decades are contributors in this Festschrift to reflect upon her scholarly work and critically dialogue on several topics: perceptions of diversity in school music and children's musical cultures; applied ethnomusicology; music education and its relation with the multicultural and social justice pedagogical approaches towards cultural diversity in music and bridging communities and culture bearers.

An Introduction to Multicultural Education
 James A. Banks, 2018-01-11. A brief, highly readable overview of the important concepts, principles, theories and practices of multicultural education. Presenting need-to-know information in a concise, highly readable style. An Introduction to Multicultural Education helps busy pre-service and practicing educators increase their understanding of what multicultural education means for the increasingly diverse classrooms in the United States today. Leading authority James A. Banks includes the widely used concepts and paradigms that he has developed, such as the dimensions of multicultural education, approaches to multicultural curriculum reform, types of knowledge and how to teach students to know, to care and to act. In addition, the text covers the characteristics of effective multicultural lessons and units, the major benchmarks educators can use to determine sound multicultural education implementation, benchmarks to reform and much more. Filled with new developments, trends and issues, as well as current statistics, citations and references, the 6th Edition features New Reflection and Action Activities and end-of-chapter summaries that can be used to identify key concepts and facilitate classroom discussion. A new research discussion shows the positive effects of ethnic studies on student engagement and achievement. Ch 1: The author's new typology of citizenship in which four types of citizenship are conceptualized and discussed: failed, recognized, participatory and transformative. New discussion of the ways in which immigration to the United States has changed significantly since 2013. An up-to-date analysis of the ethnic studies debate and controversy that occurred in the Tucson Unified School District, which culminated with a bill banning the program in 2011. Ch 1: Foundational Perspectives in Multicultural Education. Eduardo Manuel Duarte, Stacy Smith, 2000. This edited volume of works encourages students to think about contemporary post-modern ideas regarding multiculturalism and multicultural education. The wide range of selections will inspire critical classroom discussions.

The Routledge International Handbook of Life and Values Education in Asia. John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J. Kennedy, 2024-06-28. This Handbook provides a comprehensive look at the educational scope of life and values that characterize 21st-century Asia, as well as those values shared across cultures. Some values are deeply resonant with the region's past, while others reflect modernity and the new contexts in which Asian societies find themselves. Exploring these values of different types and the way they are constructed in Eastern and Western contexts, the contributors delve into the diversity of religious, moral and social education to promote greater understanding.

across cultures While a range of values is identified here there is no single set of values that can be applied to all people in all contexts The time has long gone even for single societies when values can be imposed Yet this Handbook emphasizes both the extent and importance of values to individuals and their societies how they respond to these values may provide the key to better and more caring societies and to better lives for all Academics and teachers will find this Handbook resourceful because it raises important theoretical issues related to social values and their formation in distinctive contexts and provides novel insights into the diverse educational landscape in Asia Policymakers and educators will also find this text helpful in learning to think about new ways to improve the quality of people s lives
