Multicultural Education in Western Societies James A. Banks, James Lynch, 1986 Rethinking Multicultural Education Carol Korn-Bursztyn, Alberto M. Bursztyn, Ph.D., 2002-03-30 Korn and Bursztyn and their contributors examine the cultural transitions that children make as they move between the cultures of home and school To better understand these transitions they explore how educators understand their students shifting experiences and examine how educators also negotiate transitions as they too move from home to school each day The narratives or case studies reflect this shifting gaze from child to teacher to parents and take up the various relational configurations that these can form amongst and between each other They turn a critical eye toward instances of classroom practice and school life connecting personal knowledge with school change In some cases the authors draw directly on autobiographical material linking these to a reflective approach to teaching Avoiding the celebratory tone that often attends discussions of multiculturalism the authors address how diversity engages us in continual renegotiation of the personal and social The perspectives of educators and of teacher candidates are presented and the construction of cultural identity and its impact on schools explored In illuminating the complicated nature of cultural transitions and the obligation of schools to create places in which children and families of diverse backgrounds can thrive they highlight how multiculturalism can play a transformative role in the lives of children and schools A must reading for educators and graduate students in education school psychology guidance and counseling

Encyclopedia of Multicultural Education Bruce Mitchell, Robert E. Salsbury, 1999-05-30 In the study of multicultural education there are key names places concepts and legal actions which provide a foundation for the field This reference includes more than 400 entries from a broad range of topics related to multicultural education which the authors define as education geared toward reducing bias ensuring equity and promoting understanding of the self and others Each item in the encyclopedia has been chosen for its value in illuminating one or more particular concerns in the field. Each entry not only helps to identify and place in an historical perspective a concept place person event or legal action but also links that topic to an important aspect of multicultural education. While the encyclopedia provides coverage of numerous terms from the social sciences and discusses various court decisions and historical events it also includes entries for notable persons from a wide range of cultural groups. These persons exemplify the achievements and diversity of America's many cultures and are often discussed within a multicultural curriculum. In addition the volume provides entries for cultural and ethnic groups. These entries discuss the educational needs and experiences of the group. Thus there are entries for such groups as African Americans, Anglo Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans and Jewish Americans for organizations such as the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith for several Native American people for persons such as George Washington Carver, Geronimo and Jesse Jackson and for numerous terms and concepts such as busing, institutional racism, gender equity quota systems and reverse discrimination. Entries provide bibliographic information and the volume concludes with a selected general bibliography.

Redefining Multicultural Education, 3rd Edition Ratna Ghosh, Mariusz Galczynski, 2014

As the first country in the world to enact a formal policy of multiculturalism Canada has made impressive strides toward promoting civic inclusion for all. However the education system remains less than forthcoming about the injustices that shape our democracy and create conditions that teach young people to see difference as deficiency. Ratna Ghosh and Mariusz Galczynski seek to persuade educators to incorporate the ideology of multiculturalism into their classroom pedagogy and professional practice. In this third edition Redefining Multicultural Education mobilizes an expanded definition of multiculturalism that encompasses gender identity, sexual orientation, religious expression and disability. New features include material on environmental awareness, cyberbullying, multilingual learners, digital technologies, youth radicalization and recent events in Quebec and First Nations communities. Integrating vignettes, discussion questions and sample activities with techniques for applying a multicultural lens to any subject area or level of study, this lively and accessible guide is essential for those interested in preparing students for a global economy in which innovation relies before all else on diversity.

History of Multicultural Education: Foundations and Stratifications

Carl A. Grant, Thandeka K. Chapman, 2008 This benchmark 6 volume set documents analyzes and critiques a comprehensive body of research on the history of multicultural education in the U.S. The volumes reflect the tenets of multicultural education, its history, its present and individuals whose work has contributed significantly to equity and social justice for all citizens. By collecting and providing a framework for key publications spanning the last 30-40 years this set provides a means of understanding and visualizing the development, implementation and interpretation of multicultural education in American society. The volumes do not promote any one scholar's or group's vision of multicultural education but include conflicting ideals that inform multiple interpretations. Each volume contains archival documents organized around a specific theme.

Conceptual Frameworks and Curricular Content Foundations and Stratifications Instruction and Assessment Policy and Governance Students and Student Achievement Teachers and Teacher Education The historical time line within each volume illustrates the progression of research and theory on its theme and encourages readers to reflect on the changes in language and thinking concerning educational scholarship in that area
