Creating Visions for University-School Partnerships JoAnne Ferrara, Janice L. Nath, Irma N. Guadarrama, 2014-10-24 This book continues the series tradition of exploring current thinking in professional development school research. It features diverse perspectives from PreK-16 educators addressing solutions to complex educational problems. The book covers clinically rich practices, stakeholder perspectives, content area instruction, and family engagement.

Assessing Language and Literacy with Bilingual Students Lori Helman, Anne C. Ittner, Kristen L. McMaster, 2019-10-22 From expert authors, this book guides educators to conduct assessments that inform daily instruction and identify the assets that emergent bilinguals bring to the classroom. Effective practices are reviewed for screening, assessment, and progress monitoring in the areas of oral language, beginning reading skills, vocabulary, and comprehension in the content areas and writing. The book also addresses how to establish schoolwide systems of support that incorporate family and community engagement. Packed with practical ideas and vignettes, the book focuses on grades K-6 but also will be useful to middle and high school teachers. Appendices include reproducible forms that can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size.

New Ways to Engage Parents Patricia Edwards, Catherine Compton-Lilly, 2016-05-06 Just as populations change, ideas about how to encourage and work with parents also need to evolve. This practical resource by bestselling author Patricia Edwards provides school leaders and classroom teachers with new and creative ways in which to welcome, encourage, and involve parents. Enacting these types of practices requires a special kind of commitment from teachers and school leaders, which often coincides with a particular kind of mindset about families and one's responsibility to engage them. Educators often develop this mindset as they depend on their understanding of families, literacy, language, culture, race, class, and themselves. Edwards pulls these understandings together and presents them in a straightforward, concise, and easy-to-use guide that is perfect for professional learning communities and teacher preparation courses. New Ways to Engage Parents is essential reading for all educators who care deeply about engaging a wide range of parents in today's schools. The book features a stark look at the changing community demographics and what that means for teachers and administrators, strategies for communicating with parents, examples of how to bring parents together for meaningful activities, the importance of understanding parental constraints and the need to meet them halfway, and approaches for overcoming school ghosts as well as negative histories and perceptions in the community.

Beyond Gifted Education Scott J. Peters, Michael S. Matthews, Matthew T. McBee, D. Betsy McCoach, 2021-09-03 Seeking a more comprehensive vision for gifted education, this book offers a modern vision of programs and services for gifted and talented students. Beyond Gifted Education: Designing and Implementing Advanced Academic Programs provides the first comprehensive look at designing and implementing advanced academic student programs. Written by four leading experts in the field, Beyond Gifted Education reviews the current range of traditional gifted education practices and policies. Then the book offers the concerned gifted program coordinator or school administrator a more expansive approach to educating gifted learners The authors lead readers through the process of identifying needs responding with programming and then finding students who are well suited for and would benefit from advanced academic programming Detailed examples walk the reader through real world scenarios and programs common to the gifted coordinator on topics such as cluster grouping acceleration and increasing diversity Throughout the book connections are made to Common Core State Standards Response to Intervention and a wealth of outside research in order to support ideas

Evaluating Language Assessments Antony John Kunnan, 2017-07-06 Evaluating Language Assessments offers a comprehensive overview of the theoretical bases and research methodologies for the evaluation of language assessments and demonstrates the importance of a fuller understanding of this widely used evaluative tool The volume explores language assessment evaluation in its wider political economic social legal and ethical contexts while also illustrating quantitative and qualitative methods through discussions of key research studies Suitable for students in applied linguistics second language acquisition and language assessment and education this book makes the case for a clear and rigorous understanding of the theoretical and methodological underpinnings of language assessment evaluation in order to achieve fair assessments and just institutions

The Road to Improving Informational Text Comprehension in the Upper Elementary Grades Christine L. Ahrens, 2017 This study addresses how the Common Core State Standards CCSS have been implemented in the Sheboygan Area School District using the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework With the CCSS there is an increase of 50% informational text in the elementary grades CCSSO 2010 The research questions are How does teaching the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts and Literacy's comprehension of overall reading and informational text using the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework compare to traditional teaching methods as assessed by Measure of Academic Progress tests in the upper elementary grades As well as How well do teachers know the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework Are teachers using the framework What are some reasons why teachers would not use CCRF This research is a quasi experimental design of quantitatively examining Measure of Academic MAP test results specific to the informational text strand Based on 2011 NWEA Measure of Academic Progress Normative Data for reading 10 604 scores were analyzed The second part of the research study was based on an archived teacher survey n 89 about teachers beliefs on the effectiveness and usage of the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework The findings show that all student groups increased in overall reading as well the strand of informational text A t test showed all three grade levels were significantly different from the 2011 NWEA MAP Normative Overall Reading data for the fall 2012 to spring 2013 school year The ANOVA tests show no statistically significant differences between the experimental groups receiving the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework and those receiving traditional reading instruction The researcher believes that teacher experience had a larger impact on growth than the Curriculum Companion Reading Framework This is based on the fact that the median and mode for teachers years of experience was 25 years Teacher confidence in teaching using this new framework has declined significantly compared to prior reading instruction
