Reading Comprehension Vs Returns:

Returning to Reality Phillip M. Thompson, 2012-11-14 This book synthesizes the diverse reflections on technology by monk and spiritual writer Thomas Merton to develop a compelling contemplative critique of the threats and challenges of nuclear war communication technologies and biotechnologies that may alter what it means to be human At the core of his critique Merton opposes a technological mentality that favors processes of efficiency and utility at the expense of our ultimate purpose a quest for the wisdom to guide us to the divine source of our being and reality To counter this modern idolatry Merton s insights offer a path of reflection balance and community More specifically Merton offers some constructive approaches and healing possibilities through a balanced approach to work a careful and intentional managing of technology and an accessing of the recuperative dimensions of nature In its conclusion the book brings the insights of these chapters together for a final reflection on how to maintain our humanity and our spiritual integrity in a technological world

Returning Soldiers and PTSD Barbara Krasner, 2017-07-15 One of the most painful and tragic legacies of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan has been the trauma suffered by those who served and the far reaching consequences and after effects of their scarring combat experiences This very important volume looks at the issue of returning soldiers PTSD from multiple angles examining skyrocketing suicide rates the debates surrounding the quality and accessibility of health care the nature of and stigmas associated with a PTSD diagnosis the responsibility that government and society have to care for returning soldiers how welcoming protective and supportive the environment is to which soldiers return and the steep cost of war to the individual families and society at large The Yalkut on Zechariah [by Simeon Darshan] tr., with notes, by E.G.
