The Triumph of the Slippers Pascal Bruckner, 2024-04-09 Since the beginning of the 21st century global warming terrorism the pandemic and now the war in Ukraine have created a widespread feeling that the world is an increasingly dangerous place In response to this situation it is understandable that many people are inclined to retreat to the safety of their home the last refuge and safeguard against the savagery of the outside world But the home is not just a shelter it is a space that supplants and replaces the world a wired cocoon that gradually renders any journey to the outside world superfluous From our couch we can enjoy remotely the pleasures once offered by the cinema the theatre and the caf Everything from food to love to art can be delivered to your door Armed with a smartphone and a Netflix account why would anyone risk life and limb to venture out to the cinema Compulsory confinement the nightmare of the pandemic years seems to have been replaced by voluntary self confinement Fleeing from the cities working remotely relinquishing travel and tourism we risk becoming reclusive creatures that cower at the slightest tremor In this witty and spirited book Pascal Bruckner takes aim at today s voluntary seclusionism and the self inflicted atrophy that comes with it tracing its philosophical contours and historical roots It is no longer the tyranny of lockdowns that threatens us but rather the tyranny of the sofa will the slipper and the dressing gown be the new symbols of tomorrow s world      100% Unofficial Roblox
