

Dedication Speech

May 28, 1995

This is a day to honor our country's fallen heroes and, at long last, the day we dedicate this memorial, a tribute to their sacrifice.

So many have given so much to make this day possible. To so many, I must say thank you for your commitment to this memorial for without you, it would not have happened. The words do not exist to express my gratitude.

The memorial as you see it today will most likely have a different appearance as time goes on. It is a living thing, grown from a simple idea. It has a message. Anna Carroll has given it life with her moving mural, and the statues yet to come will tell a story once placed upon the hill. The names etched in granite have given it its voice. Yes, this memorial is a living thing even if molded from granite and earth. Come some silent evening and sit, listen . . . it will speak to you. The mind is a wonderful thing. It is where dreams are made and memories live.

There are no greater heroes than those whose names appear on this wall and on memorials across this great land of ours. Be proud of them and their sacrifice. Their memory must live on if this country is to remain the land of the free. It is because these young men and women — our country's best — take an oath to defend this country and its principals. They say, "I love this country so much that I will give my life for it." They are this country's elite few and because of their sacrifice all Americans can enjoy the freedom they vow to protect. Because, my friends, freedom is not free . . . someone has paid the price that others take for granted. For those who fought for it, freedom has a flavor the protected will never know.

Today, proudly, we honor all those of our Armed Forces from all wars who gave their lives. Their courage was our greatest triumph, their sacrifice our greatest loss.

I would like to say for those who no longer have a voice of their own, thank you. Thank you for remembering. And God bless America, land that they loved.

Brian Middleton, Susan Middleton, Ron Watson, 2025-10-08 Think Hope gives readers a glimpse into the inspiring witness of a young woman who fully embraced God's plan for her life. Her example of a virtuous life offered for the conversion of others is a beacon of light in a world that has forgotten God. Antonia Salzano Acutis Mother of St Carlo Acutis. An inspiring story of faith, resilience, and unwavering hope in Christ. Think Hope. These two simple words became the guiding light of Maria Middleton's journey and the legacy she left behind. At just 18 years old, Maria, a vibrant teen from the Philadelphia area, faced the devastating diagnosis of an inoperable brain tumor. Yet even in the midst of suffering, Maria's Catholic faith, joy, and courage revealed a truth far greater than her illness: that hope is stronger than despair and the love of God always triumphs over death. In Think Hope, readers will encounter Maria's extraordinary testimony, one that continues to ripple outward, touching countless lives around the world. Through choosing love in ordinary moments and choosing hope in great suffering, Maria showed the world that holiness is not about being different or distant but about choosing to live with courage, authenticity, and joy. As Maria often reminded those around her, God's got this. Though she did not receive the physical healing she and her loved ones prayed for, Maria's life became a miracle of another kind: a miracle of hope. To this day, her witness continues to inspire others around the world to face challenges with faith, perseverance, and a heart rooted in God. Think Hope will inspire Catholics through a deeply moving, true story of faith in the face of suffering. A reminder that hope remains, no matter the circumstance. A source of inspiration for anyone seeking meaning, healing, or encouragement. A testimony that striving for holiness is not distant or unachievable; it is for everyone. Maria's words and witness remind us that hope is not just an abstract concept; it is a way of life. Her story invites readers to see the miracle that hope brings and to carry it into their own lives. Think Hope and discover how God's light triumphs even in life's darkest moments. Think Hope is a book that will cause many readers to rethink the way they look at the world and our place in it. It will challenge us to examine presuppositions about life, its meaning, and the place of human suffering. It will offer us a glimpse into the mystery of divine love expressed in a young woman's embrace of Christ. It will offer to the youth and readers of all ages a way through the fears, anxieties, and despairs that sometimes seem so prevalent in the world today: a movement from darkness to light, from confusion to commitment, from chaos to hope. Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez, D.D., Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Think Hope is a powerful story of a modern-day St. Thérèse de Lisieux. This beautiful book, written through the eyes of Maria Middleton's parents, Susan and Brian, captures the story of the soul of young Maria, diagnosed with inoperable brain cancer. Her parents weave Maria's remarkable young life with her golden nuggets of spiritual insights found in her diary, revealing a treasure trove of HOPE for each one of us. Thank you, Maria, for deepening my insight on the truth of redemptive suffering. I pray this book awakens hope and trust in our Lord for each reader as it has with me. Sr. Deirdre M.
