Discourses of Memory and Refugees Siobhan Brownlie, 2020-02-06 This book explores the discourse by and about refugees and asylum seekers in relation to memory with a particular focus on the United Kingdom A series of studies using different analytical approaches is undertaken and together the studies shed light on this overlooked area of research The studies or facets presented in the monograph cover a range of contexts and discursive genres a joint BBC refugee authored television documentary refugees oral histories creative life writing by asylum seekers parliamentarians debates a reworking of canonical texts and sites in a protest campaign and non fiction testimonies and fictional works by later generations of refugee background The monograph introduces facet methodology to memory studies arguing that this approach could encourage interdisciplinary research in the field

Memories on the Move Monika Palmberger, Jelena Tošić, 2017-03-03 Through a series of excellent essays this volume uses concrete ethnographic analyses of memory practices in different parts of the globe to offer theoretical reflections on how memory shapes and is shaped by mobility in time and space Marianne Hirsch Columbia University USA Memories on the Move is a brilliant edited volume that fills an important gap in the field of memory studies as it weaves together issues of mobility and remembering Drawing on fine grained ethnographical cases it offers a rich and complex portrait of mnemonic constructions in the context of forced migration exile and transnationalism It is clearly a must read for anthropologists sociologists historians and political scientists as well as for all scholars interested in the contemporary dynamics of memory identity and mobility David Berliner Universit Libre de Bruxelles Belgium This thought provoking volume disentangles ethnographically the complexity of meaning making practices of memory forgetting in various contexts of im mobility Noel B Salazar University of Leuven Belgium Bringing together vivid ethnographic material this book opens up a timely conversation between memory and mobility migration studies It goes beyond the idea of the nation state as the primary unit of analysis to explore how people on the move use different forms and media of remembering to make sense of their lives and act as political subjects Investigating when and by what means people on the move remember and communicate memories in the context of various forms of im mobility the authors examine photographs films the reinhabiting of pre exilic homes pseudo historical performances transgenerational mnemonic gatherings and transnational political activism This edited collection will appeal to scholars of anthropology sociology political science human geography history and oral history

Memories of Belonging: Descendants of Italian Migrants to the United States, 1884-Present Christa Wirth, 2015-02-11 Memories of Belonging is a three generation oral history study of the offspring of southern Italians who migrated to Worcester Massachusetts in 1913 Supplemented with the interviewees private documents and working from U S and Italian archives Christa Wirth documents a century of transatlantic migration assimilation and later generation self identification Her research reveals how memories of migration everyday life and ethnicity are passed down through the generations altered and contested while constituting family identities The fact that not all descendants of Italian migrants moved into the U S middle class combined with their continued use of hyphenated identities points to a history of lived ethnicity and societal exclusion Moreover this book demonstrates the extent of forgetting that is required in order to construct an ethnic identity

Exile Identity, Agency and Belonging in South Africa Zosa De Sas Kropiwnicki, 2017-07-13 This book examines the experiences of 49 second generation exiles from South Africa Using generation as an analytical concept it investigates the relational temporal and embodied nature of their childhoods in terms of kinship relations life cycle cohort development and memory making It reveals how child agents exploited the liminal nature of exile to negotiate their sense of identity home and belonging while also struggling over their position and power in formal Politics and informal politics of the everyday It also reflects upon their political consciousness identity and sense of civic duty on return to post apartheid South Africa and how this has led to the emergence of the Masupatsela generational cohort concerned with driving social and political change in South Africa

Exile Memories and the Dutch Revolt Johannes Mueller, 2016-04-08 The Dutch Revolt ca 1572 1648 led to the displacement of tens of thousands of people In Exile Memories and the Dutch Revolt Johannes M ller shows how migrants and their descendants in the Dutch Republic England and Germany cultivated their Netherlandish heritage for more than 200 years Memories of war and persecution shaped new religious and political identities that combined images of suffering and heroism and served as foundational narratives of newcomers Exposing the underlying narrative structures of early modern exile memories this volume shows how stories about the Dutch Revolt allowed migrants to participate in their host societies rather than producing a closed and exclusive diaspora While narratives of religious persecution attracted non migrants as well exile networks were able to connect newcomers and established residents

Translating Worlds Susannah Radstone, Rita Wilson, 2020-09-06 This international and interdisciplinary volume explores the relations between translation migration and memory It brings together humanities researchers from a range of disciplines including history museum studies memory studies translation studies and literary cultural and media studies to examine memory and migration through the interconnecting lens of translation The innovative perspective adopted by Translating Worlds understands translation's explanatory reach as extending beyond the comprehension of one language by another to encompass those complex and multi layered processes of parsing by means of which the unfamiliar and the familiar the old home and the new are brought into conversation and connection Themes discussed include How memories of lost homes act as aids or hindrances to homemaking in new worlds How cultural memories are translated in new cultural contexts Migration affect memory and translation Migration language and transcultural memory Migration traumatic memory and translation
