Nursing For Learnership:

The National Skills Development Handbook 2007/8 ,200? Innovating Counseling for Self- and Career Construction

Jacobus Gideon (Kobus) Maree,2020-06-29 This book sets out to provide context for innovating counseling for self and career construction It gives readers insight into the theory underlying an innovative integrative qualitative quantitative approach to career counseling Three key ideas recur throughout the book First the idea of not dispensing advice to people instead enabling them to advise themselves Second the idea of listening for instead of to people s stories to help them choose and construct careers and themselves and shape their career identities Third the idea of helping people connect what they know about themselves consciously with what they are aware of subconsciously The book confronts some of the main challenges posed by Work 4 0 on the workplace but also foreshadows the imminent advent of Work 5 0 It endeavors to promote career counselors ability to help people thrive at a time when many speculate that work itself is at risk occupational contexts no longer hold workers in the way they used to and the coronavirus pandemic is disrupting the workplace Independent

Nursing Practice with Clients M. Lucille Kinlein,1977 SAMJ ,2007 Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker,Monica McLean,2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher
