At Home and Out and About

If your child is learning phonics at school, you might want to support them at home by finding out what to do.

You might be the first to find out what phonics is the next time you're at school, but you need to be sure that you're supporting your child's learning. Here are some ways to help your child learn phonics at home.

If you are not sure what phonics means, here are some things you can do to help your child learn phonics:

At Home

Ask your child to read words from books and magazines. Encourage them to sound out each word and then blend the sounds together to read the word. If your child finds this difficult, try using a pencil to trace the letters in the words.

At School

Encourage your child to read words from books and magazines. Encourage them to sound out each word and then blend the sounds together to read the word. If your child finds this difficult, try using a pencil to trace the letters in the words.
