No Outlaws in the Gender Galaxy Chayanika Shah,Raj Merchant,Shals Mahajan,Smriti Nevatia,2015-11-06 The constructed naturalness of a world made up of two sexes two genders and heterosexual desire as the only legitimate desire has been continuously questioned and challenged by those marginalised by these norms This forces us to ask some important questions How is gender really understood and constructed in the world that we inhabit How does it operate through the various socio political cultural structures around us And most crucially how is it lived No Outlaws in the Gender Galaxy answers these questions with a research study that attempts to understand gender through the lives of queer persons assigned gender female at birth The lived realities of the respondents echoing in the book through their voices help to interrogate gender as well as provide clues to how it can be envisioned or revised to be egalitarian This book explores how gender plays out in public and private institutions like the family educational institutions work and public spaces Looking at each of these independently it elaborates the specific ways in which binary gender norms are woven into each arena and it also explores the multiple ways in which interlocking systems of heteronormativity casteism class and ableism are enmeshed within patriarchy to create exclusion marginalisation pathologisation and violence This book illustrates the multiplicity of ways in which people live gender and testifies that even if there are gender laws in a just world there can be no gender outlaws Published by Zubaan
