Examining Response to Intervention (RTI) Models in Secondary Education

Epler, Pam, 2015-07-25 Response to Intervention RTI is an intervention model designed to assist all students regardless of their academic ability. It seeks to assist students who are struggling in academics by providing them with targeted assistance in the form of tutoring pull out services and differentiated classroom instruction. Examining Response to Intervention RTI Models in Secondary Education highlights the application of the RTI model to secondary schools through instructional strategies and real world examples of how this model can be used at the middle and high school levels. Through a series of informative and timely chapters written by global educational specialists this publication is ideally designed for use by middle and high school teachers and school administrators as well as professors and students in upper level Educational Leadership and Secondary Education programs.

The Art and Architecture of Academic Writing Patricia Prinz, Birna Arnþjörnsdóttir, 2021-08-15 This book is a bridge to confident academic writing for advanced non native English users. It emphasizes depth over breadth through mastery of core writing competencies and strategies which apply to most academic disciplines and genres. Tailored to students in EMI programs the content was piloted and revised during a longitudinal writing study. The innovative approach prepares students to write for the academic community through the dual lenses of Art developing a writer's voice through choices in language style and topics and Architecture mastering norms of academic language genre and organization. The user friendly text maximizes time for writing practice and production by avoiding lengthy readings. Part 1 builds skills and confidence in writing by focusing on assignments that do not require research. Part 2 applies newly mastered principles skills and strategies to research based writing Students learn to incorporate thesis research and evidence into a process for academic writing by following the AWARE framework Arranging to write Writing Assessing Revising and Editing Lesson Plans
