Paparazzo The Elio Sorci Collection:

The Sorci Collection Elio Sorci, 2014-09 In the post war years of the 1950s Italy saw an explosion in international film production and as stars flocked to Rome followed by models playboys and monarchs the city was transformed. A small band of press photographers or paparazzi were the very first to document this Hollywood on the Tiber phenomenon and prominent among their number was Elio Sorci. Paparazzo is the first definitive collection of Sorci's award winning photography across three decades. Beginning in the late 50s Sorci's work documents the evolving style of Audrey Hepburn, Elizabeth Taylor and Sophia Loren as they blossomed from young starlets arriving in Rome to the grand dames of cinema and style dripping with diamonds at film premieres and cocktail parties. In the 1960s Sorci's lens welcomed Brigitte Bardot onto the front pages of the world's newspapers and the public's enchantment with her youthful style catalysed a sartorial breath of fresh air as the 1970s ushered in pared back lines and fresher faces in the forms of Julie Christie, Isabella Rossellini and Vanessa Redgrave. Not forgetting the evolution in men's style as Clark Gable gave way to Omar Sharif to Warren Beatty to Robert de Niro each frame captures the vitality and excitement of la Dolce Vita while revealing something of the charm, vivacity, intuition and tenacity of the photographer himself.

Stillness in Motion Sarah Patricia Hill, Giuliana Minghelli, 2014-01-01 Stillness in Motion brings together the writing of scholars, theorists and artists on the uneasy relationship between Italian culture and photography. Highlighting the depth and complexity of the Italian contribution to the technology and practice of photography this collection offers essays, interviews and theoretical reflections at the intersection of comparative visual and cultural studies. Its chapters, illustrated with more than 130 black and white images and an eight page colour section, explore how Italian literature, cinema, popular culture and politics have engaged with the medium of photography over the course of time. The collection includes topics such as Futurism's ambivalent relationship to photography, the influence of American photography on Italian neorealist cinema and the connection between the photograph and Duchamp's concept of the Readymade. With contributions from writer and theorist Umberto Eco, photographer Franco Vaccari, art historian Robert Valtorta and cultural historian Robert Lumley, Stillness in Motion engages with crucial historical and cultural moments in Italian history examining each one through particular photographic practices.

The Italian Metamorphosis, 1943-1968 Germano Celant, Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, 1994 The Italian Metamorphosis 1943-1968 is the first book to bring together all aspects of Italian visual culture from this fascinating period. Through seventeen scholarly essays and hundreds of lavish full color and duotone reproductions this volume captures the era's greatest achievements in the fields of painting, sculpture, arts, crafts, literature, photography, cinema, fashion, architecture and design.
