Paper Politics Socially Engaged Printmaking Today:

Paper Politics Josh MacPhee, 2009-10-01 Paper Politics Socially Engaged Printmaking Today is a major collection of contemporary politically and socially engaged printmaking. This full color book showcases print art that uses themes of social justice and global equity to engage community members in political conversation. Based on an art exhibition that has traveled to a dozen cities in North America, Paper Politics features artwork by over 200 international artists, an eclectic collection of work by both activist and non-activist printmakers who have felt the need to respond to the monumental trends and events of our times. Paper Politics presents a breathtaking tour of the many modalities of printing by hand: relief, intaglio, lithography, serigraph, collagraph, monotype, and photography. In addition to these techniques, included are more traditional media used to convey political thought: finely crafted stencils and silk screens intended for wheat pasting in the street. Artists range from the well-established Sue Coe, Swoon, Carlos Cortez, to the up-and-coming Favianna Rodriguez, Chris Stain, Nicole Schulman, from street artists BORF, You Are Beautiful, to rock poster makers EMEK, Bughouse. Paper Politics Josh MacPhee, 2009. Paths toward Utopia Cindy Milstein, 2012-10-05. Consisting of ten collaborative picture essays that weave Cindy Milstein's poetic words within Erik Ruin's intricate yet bold paper cut and scratch board images, Paths toward Utopia suggests some of the here-and-now practices that prefigure, however imperfectly, the self-organization that would be commonplace in an egalitarian society. The book mines what we do in our daily lives for the already-existent gems of a freer future, premised on anarchistic ethics like cooperation and direct democracy. Its pages depict everything from seemingly ordinary activities like using parks as our commons to grandiose occupations of public space that construct do it ourselves communities if only temporarily including pieces such as The Gift Borrowing from the Library Solidarity Is a Pizza and Waking to Revolution The aim is to supply hints of what it routinely would be like to live every day in a world created from below where coercion and hierarchy are largely vestiges of the past Paths toward Utopia is not a rosy eyed stroll though The book retains the tensions in present day attempts to model horizontal institutions and relationships of mutual aid under increasingly vertical exploitative and alienated conditions It tries to walk the line between potholes and potential Yet if anarchist and other autonomist efforts are to serve as a clarion call to action they must illuminate how people qualitatively consensually and ecologically shape their needs as well as desires They must offer stepping stones toward emancipation This can only happen through experimentation by us all with diverse forms of self determination and self governance even if riddled with contradictions in this contemporary moment As the title piece to this book steadfastly asserts The precarious passage itself is our road map to a liberatory society Front Lines Susan Simensky Bietila,2026-02-10 This book is a blueprint for artists looking to engage with activist movements with a persistent longevity and a reminder that art has the power to be more dangerous than words Front Lines A Lifetime of Drawing Resistance is Susan Simensky Bietila's story of her six decades as a movement artist and activist and a lifetime of artistic collaborations rooted in her activist experience Growing up during McCarthyism she rejected the nationalist masculinity of elite art and conformist culture and found feminism and collectivism as new forms of resistance She became an artist in the New Left creating illustrations for radical underground publications including RAT Subterranean News and comics for the anarchic World War 3 Illustrated With more than one hundred images Front Lines documents her art on the page and in action featuring protest banners and giant puppets of birds and fish carried in the streets masks of notorious dictators for street theater posters pasted on walls and hung in radical spaces community art builds and more Visual storytelling and detailed captions contextualize and bring to life her work with movements including antiwar protests during the Viet Nam era Indigenous led antimine and antipeline struggles water protection immigrant rights anticorporate globalization convening protests against the state and capital Palestinian liberation actions and collaborations with groups throughout the Great Lakes region and beyond She agitates from the roots and the front lines to this day Revolutionary Women Queen of the Neighbourhood,2010-11-01 A radical feminist history and street art resource for inspired readers This book combines short biographies with striking and usable stencil images of thirty women activists anarchists feminists freedom fighters and visionaries It offers a subversive portrait history which refuses to belittle the military prowess and revolutionary drive of women whose violent resolves often shatter the archetype of woman as nurturer It is also a celebration of some extremely brave women who have spent their lives fighting for what they believe in and rallying supporters in climates where a woman's authority is never taken as seriously as a man's The text also shares some of each woman's ideologies philosophies struggles and quiet humanity with quotes from their writings or speeches The women featured are Harriet Tubman Louise
