Paradigm Found Leading And Managing For Positive Change:

Paradigm Found Anne Firth Murray, 2011-12-10 A Practical Framework for Positive Social Change In 1987 Anne Firth Murray had the idea that funding should go to grassroots women's organizations around the globe and that the recipients themselves should decide how to use that money From that idea The Global Fund for Women was born The organization became a major force for good in the world embodying a new paradigm of philanthropy In these pages Murray shares her wisdom offering guidelines that demonstrate how anyone can turn a clear vision of a better world into reality Bridging the Gap Bert Ayers, 2015-10-25 Take a look at a critical transition in Albania's history Bridging the Gap provides a glimpse into the country and provides a statistical analysis of two villages Social Entrepreneurship David Bornstein, Susan Davis, 2010-04-16 In development circles there is now widespread consensus that social entrepreneurs represent a far better mechanism to respond to needs than we have ever had before a decentralized and emergent force that remains our best hope for solutions that can keep pace with our problems and create a more peaceful world David Bornstein's previous book on social entrepreneurship How to Change the World was hailed by Nicholas Kristof in the New York Times as a bible in the field and published in more than twenty countries Now Bornstein shifts the focus from the profiles of successful social innovators in that book and teams with Susan Davis a founding board member of the Grameen Foundation to offer the first general overview of social entrepreneurship In a Q & A format allowing readers to go directly to the information they need the authors map out social entrepreneurship in its broadest terms as well as in its particulars Bornstein and Davis explain what social entrepreneurs are how their organizations function and what challenges they face The book will give readers an understanding of what differentiates social entrepreneurship from standard business ventures and how it differs from traditional grant based non profit work Unlike the typical top down model based approach to solving problems employed by the World Bank and other large institutions social entrepreneurs work through a process of iterative learning learning by doing working with communities to find unique local solutions to unique local problems Most importantly the book shows readers exactly how they can get involved Anyone inspired by Barack Obama's call to service and who wants to learn more about the essential features and enormous promise of this new method of social change Social Entrepreneurship What Everyone Needs to Know is the ideal first place to look What Everyone Needs to Know is a registered trademark of Oxford University Press Foundation News & Commentary, 2006 From Outrage to Courage Anne Firth Murray, 2008 Women in poorer countries face daunting health injustices and they are fighting back Women Who Light the Dark Paola Gianturco, 2007-07 Across the world local women are helping one another tackle problems that darken their lives poverty disease discrimination illiteracy inequality They possess a precious resource imagination Photojournalist Paola Gianturco takes readers on a journey climbing Annapurna eating lunch while soldiers carry sandbags to a roof watching a healer at work welcoming babies to the world Her images are of 129 women from 15 countries and describe their lives
