A Parent's Job (Classic Reprint) Columbus Norman Millard, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from A Parent's Job There are few school principals who are not frequently requested by parents to promote pupils at the end of a school year regardless of their standings Whether the children are fitted to do the work of the succeeding grade is apparently a matter of no concern to the anxious parent The mere fact that their pride will be hurt by being kept back seems to be the only point considered The readiness with which parents often intercede with school authorities for a child to give up a study that is irksome to him is another regrettable tendency which is unfortunately altogether too common In such instances neither the intrinsic value of the subject nor the possibility of its affording most excellent training for the child is taken into consideration He doesn't like it is obviously to them an all sufficient reason About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Correspondence of Henrik Ibsen (Classic Reprint) Henrik Ibsen, 2017-05-23 Excerpt from The Correspondence of Henrik Ibsen ON the 31st of May 1880 Henrik Ibsen wrote to his publisher Frederik Hegel that he had begun a little book in which he intended to give some account of the outward and inward conditions under which each one of his works had come into being letter It was to be called From Simian to Rome and was to give descriptions of his life at Skien and Grimstad Bergen and Christiania Dresden Munich and Rome About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A Parent's Job Columbus Norman Millard, 1917 Career Development, 1991

assistants and employes having delegated authority and power and their success and usefulness depend largely upon the wisdom and co operation of their employers Hence the discipline of the family embraces the discipline of the school and should be based upon the same principles and studied with equal care and earnestness both by parents and teachers With these views and with the hope of aiding in the noble work of training our American children for greater usefulness and a higher destiny than we have yet realized the author has prepared this volume About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
