Parents Guide To Martial Arts:

Parents' Guide to Martial Arts Debra M. Fritsch, Ruth S. Hunter, 1998 The ultimate reference book for parents in search of a martial arts school and a positive experience for their children. The authors answer dozens of questions about choosing a martial arts school and understanding what's going on once lessons begin, including evaluating an instructor's credentials, understanding contracts and membership agreements, spotting unsafe facilities, exercises preventing injuries, purchasing the right safety gear, helping your child get the most from his or her martial arts lessons. An invaluable resource for parents. Includes check list and evaluation sheet for objectively comparing schools and instructors. Know which questions you should be asking and what answers signal a potentially positive experience for you and your child.

Martial Arts Unlocked Joseph Ash, 2013 Don't get overwhelmed in your search for the right Martial Arts school. Go straight to the Master. There is no shortage of information out there about Martial Arts and the various styles. It's easy to get confused. But now Martial Arts Unlocked separates the hype from the facts. It provides you with the best tools to choose the ideal Martial Arts program for your family. Master Joseph Ash, a martial artist and school owner with over 32 years of experience, breaks down the major types of Martial Arts schools. He gives an insider's look at how the Martial Arts business works and provides a punch list of musts for a high quality program. Written from the heart of a father, the spirit of a martial artist and the mind of a business owner, Master Ash gives you a clear understanding of how to research, interview and select the best source of Martial Arts education for your family. Finding the right Martial Arts school is like finding another family. In today's fast-paced world, we need an extra set of eyes on our kids' new outlooks for our future and a safe place where the whole family can reconnect in a quality activity. A professional Martial Arts school is the ideal support system that today's families desperately need. Have a question or would you like to learn more? Contact Master Joseph B.
