The Papal System William Cathcart,1872 The Papal System; a Historical Sketch of Every Doctrine, Claim and Practice of the Church of Rome William Cathcart,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1872 edition Excerpt THE POPE CLAIMS TO BE LORD OF KINGS AND NATIONS Systems of religion may teach contradictory opinions about the persons of the Godhead the character of the Divine government the nature of the Saviour s sacrifice and about the freedom of the will and yet those who receive these diverse opinions may live in perfect harmony with each other But it is otherwise when the head of one sect claims the sceptres and nations as his own asserts a right to dethrone sovereigns to act as the vicar of the Almighty in this world in confirming or overturning at his pleasure its laws institutions and chief magistrates The conviction is universal over the Protestant world that the head of the Catholic Church claims this power would exercise it if he could in every nation and has employed it in many instances This conviction has prompted the enactment of laws excluding Catholics from state offices and of oaths requiring them to renounce the supremacy of the pontiff in civil affairs and it has occasionally led to popular outbreaks in Protestant countries against the adherents of the papal Church It must be confessed that there is a chronic apprehension among all the peoples whose fathers threw off the Roman yoke in the sixteenth century that the Rishon of the Eternal City is only awaitinsr an opportunity to ruler the land enjoyed peace in all its borders the hopes of Unpeople based on the character and ability of the new sovereign were high William Duke of Normandy born out of wedlock was a special favorite of Pope Alexander II The Duke was full of ambition a man of extraordinary courage and of great military ability His passions were unrestrained his cruelty was nearly unbounded and the only rights which he saw or respected Romanism: a doctrinal and historical examination of the creed of pope Pius iv Robert Charles Jenkins,1883 Dictionary of Doctrinal and Historical Theology John Henry Blunt,1872
