Parailiret Iliret Arberit:

Multiple Antiquities - Multiple Modernities Gábor Klaniczay, Michael Werner, Otto Gécser, 2011-09 Antiquity as the term has been understood and used over the centuries by scholars political and religious figures and ordinary citizens is far from a single monolithic concept Rather than reflecting a stable shared understanding about the past and its meaning the idea of antiquity is instead varying and multiple taking on different meanings and deployed to different effects depending on the context in which it is being considered In this volume historians from a wide range of specialties offer a comparative assessment of the multiple perceptions of antiquity that have shaped modern European cultures and national identities deploying a new methodological approach histoire croisée which considers these questions in light of the development of cultural diversity across Europe

Death and Changing Rituals J. Rasmus Brandt, Håkon Roland, Marina Prusac, 2014-07-31 The forms by which a deceased person may be brought to rest are as many as there are causes of death In most societies the disposal of the corpse is accompanied by some form of celebration or ritual which may range from a simple act of deportment in solitude to the engagement of large masses of people in laborious and creative festivities In a funerary context the term ritual may be taken to represent a process that incorporates all the actions performed and thoughts expressed in connection with a dying and dead person from the preparatory pre death stages to the final deposition of the corpse and the post mortem stages of grief and commemoration The contributions presented here are focused not on the examination of different funerary practices their function and meaning but on the changes of such rituals how and when they occurred and how they may be explained Based on case studies from a range of geographical regions and from different prehistoric and historical periods a range of key themes are examined concerning belief and ritual body and deposition place performance and commemoration exploring a complex web of practices

Butrint 7 David Hernandez, Richard Hodges, 2020-12-14 This volume brings together unpublished Italian and Albanian archaeological reports and new archaeological studies from recent fieldwork that throw new light on the archaeology and history of the Pavllas River Valley the Mediterranean alluvial plain in the territory of Butrint ancient Buthrotum in southwestern Albania It gives prominence for the first time to two important sites Kalivo and uka e Aitoit which are here reinterpreted and shown to have played major roles in the early history of Butrint as it evolved in the later first millennium BC to emerge as the key city of Chaonia in Epirus Butrint 7 also presents the full excavation report of the Late Bronze Age and Hellenistic fortified site of Mursi in addition to other Butrint Foundation surveys and excavations in the hinterland of Butrint including the Roman villa maritima at Diaporit the villa suburbana on the Vrina Plain and Roman sites on Alinura Bay and at the Customs House as well as new surveys of the early modern Triangular Fortress and a survey to locate the lost Venetian village of Zarpulo The volume also features a new study of the Hellenistic bronze statuette of Pan found on Mount Mile and of his sanctuary at Butrint The volume concludes with a comprehensive reassessment of the Pavllas River Valley in relation to Butrint from the Palaeolithic

to the modern eras examining how dominion territory environment and the corrupting sea reshaped Butrint and its fluvial corridor diachronically and particularly brought profound territorial economic and social alterations under the Roman Empire

Memory and Nation Building Michael L. Galaty, 2018-08-16 Memory and Nation Building addresses the complex topic of collective memory first described by sociologist Maurice Halbwachs in the first half of the 20th century Author Michael Galaty argues that the first states appropriated traditional collective memory systems in order to form With this in mind he compares three Mediterranean societies Egypt Greece and Albania each of which experienced very different trajectories of state formation Galaty attributes these differences to varying responses to collective memory in all three places through time with climaxes in the Ottoman period during which all three were under Ottoman control Egypt was characterized by deeply meaningful memory tropes concerning national unity which spanned all of Egyptian history while Greece experienced memory fragmentation a condition exacerbated by periods of imperial conquest Albania adapted and assimilated when faced with foreign domination such that an indigenous Albanian state did not form until 1912 Galaty builds a diachronic model of state formation and its relationship to memory and political control Memory and Nation Building culminates in an analysis of modern collective memory systems and resistance to those systems which are often framed as conflicts over heritage The formation and eventual fall of the short lived Islamic State serves as an example of extreme memory work with lessons for other modern nations

Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie, 2010-03-19 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it is a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other and will soon it is to be hoped advance and take its proper place in Europe and the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Albania relates the history of this little known country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography appendixes and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets
