A Tale of Two Paths David Waddell,2025-12-10 Author David Waddell draws on two references related to baseball to form his thoughts on the choices one has when deciding between grace and legalism One is a statement from Yogi Berra who said If you come to a fork in the road take it The other reference deals with a short skit performed by the comedy duo Abbott and Costello titled Who's on First Waddell points out that every follower of Christ faces a constant fork in the road where they must choose the path of grace or the path of legalism Waddell provides examples from his life that relate to the situations where Jesus dealt with the Pharisees and the letters of the Apostle Paul whose ministry constantly pointed people to grace by faith rather than adherence to Jewish law Welcome To Fluvanna, B\*\*\*\* D. Welcome to Fluvanna Bitch is the story of Dell Denise Williams who was incarcerated at the age of fifty five years for aggravated malicious wounding The book tells of her journey in the valley as she called her incarceration Williams a Christian Buddhist goes into detail about her year at Prince William Manassas jail and five years at Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women a maximum security prison The book details her journey She tells about her friendship with her Atlanta gal pal who walked the journey with her from day 2 with no judgment just love A tradition they developed is that every Sunday afternoon they would talk on the phone She goes into detail about behaviors relationships programs the prison system and how she maneuvered her way through the system She speaks of the staff and administrators who assisted her Ms Williams talks about her prayer and meditation as her saving grace She shared her routine practice and mindset while incarcerated She was determined to come out of the valley a better human being and enlightened She gathered knowledge while in the valley completing her studies in Buddhism under the instruction of Dzogchen Ponlop Rinpoche through Mind without Borders HVAC and UVA's Darden School of Business thanks to Professor Fairchild and Resilience Education

Spent behind the Wheel Julietta Hua,Kasturi Ray,2021-12-21 Exploring professional passenger driving and the gig economy through feminist theories of labor Are taxi drivers in today's era of the ride hail app performing care work akin to domestic and household labor So argue the authors of Spent behind the Wheel Bringing together sociological and legal perspectives with feminist theoretical insights Julietta Hua and Kasturi Ray examine the case study of contemporary professional passenger driving in the United States On the one hand they show the rise of the gig economy has brought new attention to the industry of professional passenger driving On the other hand the vulnerabilities that professional drivers experience remain hidden Drawing on interviews with drivers labor organizers and members of licensing commissions as well as case law and other published resources Hua and Ray argue that working for ride hail companies like Uber and Lyft shares similarities with driving for taxi companies in the impact on driver lives Lyft and Uber sell the idea of industry disruption but in fact they entrench long standing modes of extracting the reproductive labor of their drivers for the benefit of consumer lives Reproductive labor conventionally understood as feminized labor is extracted but masked behind the masculinized racialized bodies of drivers Professional driving is thus best understood alongside domestic and other gendered service work as reproductive labors devalued and often demonetized to benefit the national economy Spent behind the Wheel is a must for readers interested in critical studies of technological change and the gig economy showing how drivers capacities are drained for the benefit of riders corporations and the maintenance of the racial state
