Migration And Identity In A Post National World Global Ethics:

Migration and Identity in a Post-National World K. Tonkiss, 2015-12-04 Katherine Tonkiss offers a succinct account of constitutional patriotism theory specifically arguing that it involves a commitment to free migration She draws on qualitative research to explore the implications of this claim for the dynamics of post national identity and belonging in local communities

Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies Engin Isin, Peter Nyers, 2014-06-27 Citizenship studies is at a crucial moment of globalizing as a field What used to be mainly a European North American and Australian field has now expanded to major contributions featuring scholarship from Latin America Asia Africa and the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies takes into account this globalizing moment At the same time it considers how the global perspective exposes the strains and discords in the concept of citizenship as it is understood today With over fifty contributions from international interdisciplinary experts the Handbook features state of the art analyses of the practices and enactments of citizenship across broad continental regions Africas Americas Asias and Europes as well as deterritorialized forms of citizenship Diasporicity and Indigeneity Through these analyses the Handbook provides a deeper understanding of citizenship in both empirical and theoretical terms This volume sets a new agenda for scholarly investigations of citizenship Its wide ranging contributions and clear accessible style make it essential reading for students and scholars working on citizenship issues across the humanities and social sciences

Labour Migration in the European Union

Gönül Oğuz, 2020-03-12 No analysis of migration in Europe today can avoid consideration of the role of the EU institutions as well as the member states in policy making This is because the obstacles for labour mobility which have confronted the EU in the post enlargement period have been multi dimensional in nature have encompassed many different aspects of European integration process and have operated at many different levels Recent developments in the free movement of labour in Europe entail a comprehensive analysis of the dynamic of migration policy process contextualising institutional change cooperation control and competition between the EU institutions and the member states This book provides a picture of how governance of labour migration is constructed managed negotiated and decided at the European level It brings together in an informed and well organized way some of the key issues in the face of current migration crises and Brexit

The History and Politics of Free Movement within the European Union Saila Heinikoski, 2020-11-26 The right to free movement is the one privilege that EU citizens value the most in the Union but one that has also created much political controversy in recent years as the debates preceding the 2016 Brexit referendum aptly illustrate This book examines how European politicians have justified and criticized free movement from the commencement of the first Commission of the EU 25 in November 2004 to the Brexit referendum in June 2016 The analysis takes into account the discourses of Heads of State Governments and Ministers of the Interior or Home Secretaries of six major European states the UK Germany France Italy Spain and Romania In addition to these national leaders the speeches of European Commissioners responsible for free movement matters are also considered The book introduces a new conceptual framework for analysing practical reasoning in political discourses and applies it in the analysis of national free movement debates contextualised in respective migration histories In addition to results related to political discourses the study unearths wider problems related to free movement including the diversified and variegated approaches towards different groups of movers as well as the exclusive attitudes apparent in both discourses and policies The History and Politics of Free Movement within the European Union is of interest to anyone studying national and European politics and ideologies contemporary history migration policies and political argumentation

Citizenship and Human Rights Christian H Kälin, 2024-02-08 Can universal human rights and different national citizenship regimes ever be compatible This book argues that they can't setting out a legal philosophical critique of the tension between both It explores whether the emergence of postnational models of citizenship that aim at decoupling human rights and citizenship succeed in overcoming tensions between the universal multiculturalism universal human rights postnational values and the particular citizenship borders national values and diverse local narratives As a result of this exploration the author argues that it is illegitimate to speak of universal human rights universal human dignity or universal social justice It is only by recognising this reality that a much needed transformation of human rights and citizenship can be undertaken in a meaningful way This provocative and compelling work will appeal to both human rights and citizenship lawyers as well as others involved in human rights law at NGOs governments international organisations and indeed anyone with an interest in the subject of how human rights evolved and new concepts for the future

Sociological Abstracts, 2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Moral Issues in Intelligence-led Policing Helene Gundhus, Kira Rønn, Nick Fyfe, 2017-09-27 The core baseline of Intelligence led Policing is the aim of increasing efficiency and quality of police work with a focus on crime analysis and intelligence methods as tools for informed and objective decisions both when conducting targeted specialized operations and when setting strategic priorities This book critically addresses the proliferation of intelligence logics within policing from a wide array of scholarly perspectives It considers questions such as How are precautionary logics becoming increasingly central in the dominant policing strategies What kind of challenges will this move entail What does the criminalization of preparatory acts mean for previous distinctions between crime prevention and crime detection What are the predominant rationales behind the proactive use of covert cohesive measures in order to prevent attacks on national security How are new technological measures increased private partnerships and international cooperation challenging the core nature of police services as the main providers of public safety and security This book offers new insights by exploring dilemmas legal issues and questions raised by the use of new policing methods and the blurred and confrontational lines that can be observed between prevention intelligence and investigation in police work      CSA Political Science and Government ,2004      Challenging Citizenship Sor-hoon Tan,2005 Economists political scientists and philosophers mostly from China Australia and Britain approach the notion of citizenship from a variety of perspectives Among the themes are how perennial problems manifest in the global age new challenges and possibilities generated by globalization the adequacy of liberal approaches that dominate theories      CSA Political Science & Government ,2005      Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association,2008      Identity Dynamics and the Construction of Boundaries Bo Petersson,Eric Clark,2003 How is identity constructed maintained and altered in different geographical personal and societal contexts A multi disciplinary approach is indispensable for an understanding of the deeply intertwined processes of identity construction and boundary formation In this spirit Identity Dynamics and the construction of Boundaries brings together scholars from political science human geography and area studies who present a variety of perspectives on the subject It is the fruit of a series of seminars and workshops on the themes of identity nationalism globalisation migration citizenship and the removal and displacement of borders The authors analyse a number of issues regarding identity and boundary construction drawing on case studies from a wide range of countries including Denmark Ireland Sweden and Russia      International Review for the Sociology of Sport ,2003      Of States, Rights, and Social Closure Oliver Schmidtke,Saima Ozcurumez,2008-04-09 Increased levels of immigration sparked scholarly and public debate about its consequences for immigrants liberal democracies sovereignty and rights in both Europe and North America This book addresses questions such as Do nation states act to facilitate or limit immigration and integration how and why How do nation states themselves transform in understanding and interpreting rights respond to immigration Does the European Union make a difference in terms of how immigrants are perceived or how they act as stakeholders in liberal democracies Through a collection of rich theoretical and empirical contributions diverse and intriguing responses are provided with case studies from Europe and North America      PAIS International in Print Catherine Korvin,2003-05 This book contains bibliographic references with abstracts and subject headings to public and social policy literature and to world politics published in print and electronic formats international focus      Journal of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Studies ,2006      The Challenges of Ethno-Nationalism Adrian Guelke,2010-05-19 Ethno nationalism has been a key concern of the post Cold War world often associated with violent conflict and the horrors of ethnic cleansing This book shows however that the issue of ethno nationalism is much broader than its depiction in the media It demonstrates how ethno nationalism is not simply the recourse of minorities seeking separation from existing states but that it can also be associated with dominant and majority groups The contributors explore this complex phenomenon through a series of case studies and analyse its wide geographical spread from India to Bolivia and from Russia to Spain Different angles on the Irish case are presented and a comparative analysis underscoring the options available for accommodating ethno nationalist parties and movements is also included The volume is multidisciplinary and the authors employ a variety of methodologies including the innovative use of visual representation to advance our understanding of the nature of ethno nationalism      Nostalgia For A Redeemed Future Agostini G. Saavedra,2009-06 These essays explore the thought of critic and philosopher Theodor Adorno the aesthetics of critic Walter Benjamin and various aspects of modern critical theory Among the topics are the autonomy of art art in an age of mechanical reproduction and emancipation and anti Semitism H W Wilson Inc      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006      The State of the World's Refugees ,1997
