Mind The Gab Tourism Study Guide:

Self-directed learning research and its impact on educational practice Elsa Mentz,Roxanne Bailey,2021-05-17

This scholarly book is the third volume in an NWU book series on self directed learning and is devoted to self directed learning research and its impact on educational practice The importance of self directed learning for learners in the 21st century to equip themselves with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning for life cannot be over emphasised The target audience does not only consist of scholars in the field of self directed learning in Higher Education and the Schooling sector but includes all scholars in the field of teaching and learning in all education and training sectors The book contributes to the discourse on creating dispositions towards self directed learning among all learners and adds to the latest body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning Although from different perspectives all chapters in the book are closely linked together around self directed learning as a central theme following on the work done in Volume 1 of this series Self Directed Learning for the 21st Century Implications for Higher Education to form a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning Tourism, Culture & Communication ,2004 Encyclopedia of Tourism Jafar Jafari,Honggen

Xiao,2025-01-08 This encyclopedia is the most comprehensive and updated source of reference in tourism research and practice It covers both traditional and emerging concepts and terms and is fully international in its scope Some 769 entries by 871 internationally renowned experts from 124 countries provide a definitive access to the knowledge of tourism and its related fields Users will find reliable and up to date definitions and explanations of the key terms of tourism in this reference book Tourism is the largest industry in the world and is the main source of income for many countries With the practical impact of worldwide tourism and the growing number of academic programs and institutions devoted to its education and research this encyclopedia is the epicenter of this emerging and developing discipline Editorial BoardManaging Editor Amy Osmond Associate Editors David Airey Nevenka Cavlek Peter U C Dieke Juergen Gnoth Maria Gravari Barbas Tazim Jamal Kumi Kato Francisco Madrid Flores Yoel Mansfeld Scott M Meis Regina Schl ter Noel Scott Honggang XuResource Editor Beka JakeliAssistant Editors S Vida Muse Peter Reim Shun YeCartographers Kisandul Kumarasinghe Ashan Manamperi Himanshi Withanage Tourism as a Pathway to Hope and Happiness Tej Vir Singh,Richard Butler,David A.

Fennell,2022-12-05 Tourism is often viewed as a phenomenon that brings out the worst in human nature Self interest overuse of resources injustice and cultural erosion are but a few examples This book explores the contrasting view that tourism can be a pathway to hope and happiness The chapters address areas including wellbeing positive psychology hopeful tourism mindfulness peace responsible tourism and spirituality The volume examines the role of tourism in preserving natural wonders and architectural masterpieces bringing out the best in tourists and locals and adding economic value if planned developed and managed sustainably It will be a useful resource for students and researchers in tourism psychology and philosophy Negotiating Hospitality Emily Höckert,2018-05-11 How do hosts and guests welcome each other in responsible encounters This book addresses the question in a longitudinal ethnographic study on tourism development in the coffee cultivating communities in Nicaragua The research follows the trail of development practitioners and researchers who travel with a desire to help teach and study the local hosts On a broader level it is a journey exploring how the conditions of hospitality become negotiated between these actors The theoretical approach bases itself on the ethical subjectivity as responsibility and receptivity towards the other The ideas put forward in the book suggest that hospitality responsibility and participation all require a readiness to interrupt one's own ways of doing knowing and being This book provides a conceptual tool to facilitate reflection on alternative ways of doing togetherness and will be of interest to students and researchers of hospitality tourism development studies cultural studies and anthropology The Journal of Tourism Studies, 1999

Ecotourism David A. Fennell, 2025-08-01 The new sixth edition of Ecotourism focuses on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice and examines the sector in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world's greenest form of tourism Building on the success of prior editions the text has been revised throughout to incorporate recent research including ecotourism taking place in underrepresented world regions It includes new case studies on important themes in research and practice as well as learning objectives in each chapter David A Fennell provides an authoritative and comprehensive review of the most important issues including climate change and UN Sustainable Development Goals Ecotourism continues to be embraced as the antithesis of mass tourism because of its promise of achieving sustainability through conservation mindedness community development education and learning and the promotion of nature based activities that are sensitive to both ecological and social systems The book debates to what extent this promise has been realised An essential reference for those interested in ecotourism the book is accessible to students but retains the depth required for use by researchers and practitioners in the field This book will be of interest to students across a range of disciplines including geography economics business ethics biology and environmental studies Tourism and Ethnodevelopment Ismar Borges de Lima, Victor T. King, 2017-09-13 Ethnodevelopment is a well established concept in the field of development studies Despite its relevance to tourism initiatives and processes in the Global South it continues to be an underutilised concept in the field This book bridges this gap presenting an original conceptual framework to study the relationship between tourism and ethnodevelopment It focuses on the processes of inclusion empowerment self expression and self determination to explore the effects of tourism initiatives on the identities cultural resilience livelihoods and economic opportunities of ethnic minority communities Chapters explore a range of concepts and issues such as gender authenticity indigenous knowledge tradition the commodification of culture community based tourism local entrepreneurship cultural heritage and tourism and the environment Drawing on rich primary research conducted across South East Asia and South and Central America the book offers detailed evaluations of the successes and failures of various tourism policies and practices This book makes a valuable contribution for students scholars practitioners and policy makers alike interested in tourism development studies geography and anthropology Public Memory, Race, and Heritage Tourism of Early America Cathy Rex, Shevaun E. Watson, 2021-10-20 This book addresses the interconnected issues of public memory race and heritage tourism exploring the ways in which historical tourism shapes collective understandings of America s earliest engagements with race It includes contributions from a diverse group of humanities scholars including early Americanists and scholars from communication English museum studies historic preservation art and architecture Native American studies and history Through eight chapters the collection offers varied perspectives and original analyses of memory making and re making through travel to early American sites bringing needed attention to the considerable role that tourism plays in producing and possibly unsettling racialized memories about America s past The book is an interdisciplinary effort that analyses lesser known sites of historical and racial significance throughout North America and the Caribbean up to about 1830 to unpack the relationship between leisure travel processes of collective remembering or forgetting and the connections of tourist sites to colonialism slavery genocide and oppression Public Memory Race and Heritage Tourism of Early America provides a deconstruction of the touristic experience with racism slavery and the Indigenous experience in America that will appeal to students and academics in the social sciences and humanities The introductory chapter and chapter 3 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
