Arts-Based Multiliteracies for Teaching and Learning Peters, Beryl, 2024-10-17 The current educational landscape demands more than traditional literacy skills to equip learners with the necessary tools to thrive in the modern world The traditional focus on reading and writing print text may not be sufficient to comprehend the diverse forms of meaning making necessary for effective communication and understanding in diverse communities This poses a crucial challenge for educators who aspire to foster engaged and critically aware learners who can navigate the complexities of contemporary society Arts Based Multiliteracies for Teaching and Learning offers a transformative solution by advocating for a pedagogy of multiliteracies centered on arts based approaches By redefining literacy to encompass diverse modalities such as dance drama music visual arts and multi media this book challenges educators to expand their understanding of literacy beyond traditional boundaries The book provides a compelling rationale for integrating arts based multiliteracies across all levels and curricular areas

Amateur Media Dan Hunter, 2013 The rise of Web 2.0 has pushed the amateur to the forefront of public discourse public policy and media scholarship Typically non salaried non specialist and untrained in media production amateur producers are now seen as key drivers of the creative economy But how do the activities of citizen journalists fan fiction writers and bedroom musicians connect with longer traditions of extra institutional media production This edited collection provides a much needed interdisciplinary contextualisation of amateur media before and after Web 2.0 Surveying the institutional economic and legal construction of the amateur media producer via a series of case studies it features contributions from experts in the fields of law economics and media studies based in the UK Europe and Singapore Each section of the book contains a detailed case study on a selected topic followed by two further pieces providing additional analysis and commentary Using an extraordinary array of case studies and examples from YouTube to online games from subtitling communities to reality TV the book is neither a celebration of amateur production nor a denunciation of the demise of professional media industries Rather this book presents a critical dialogue across law and the humanities exploring the dynamic tensions and interdependencies between amateur and professional creative production This book will appeal to both academics and students of intellectual property and media law as well as to scholars and students of economics media cultural and internet studies
