Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi,Ralph J. Fletcher,2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative fiction or even poetry but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay they often feel anxious and frustrated JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion keen interest and wonder Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in his challenging genre Like the authors best selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8 this book is divided into sections for K 2 3 4 and middle school grades 5 8 students These divisions reflect various differences between emerging competent and fluent writers In each section you ll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that s most appropriate for that particular age In the K 2 section for example a number of craft lessons focus on the all about or concept book In the 3 4 section there are several lessons on biography In the 5 8 section a series of lessons addresses expository writing Throughout the book each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy to read format Every lesson features three teaching guidelines Discussion A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context How to Teach It Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting Resource Material Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer more authoritative and more organized Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too Organizing and Managing the Language Arts Block Lesley Mandel Morrow,2003-01-01 This book offers essential guidance to preservice and inservice teachers seeking to create revise or add new strategies to the teaching of the language arts block The focus is on how to implement effective strategies in the context of a well planned classroom and a smoothly choreographed daily schedule In a series of vivid case studies Lesley Mandel

Morrow brings to life the methods used by exemplary teachers to create rich student friendly learning environments for children in grades K-4. No component of organizing the language arts block is omitted including setting up and running classroom learning centers assessing different instructional needs conducting whole class and small group meetings and linking language arts to content area instruction. Enhancing the practical utility of the book are sample daily schedules and classroom management tips for each grade level along with dozens of reproducible learning activities lesson plans and assessment and record keeping tools.

Scaffolding Young Writers Linda J. Dorn, Carla Soffos, 2001

The goal of teaching writing is to create independent and self motivated writers. When students write more often they become better at writing. They acquire habits skills and strategies that enable them to learn more about the craft of writing. Yet they require the guidance and support of a more knowledgeable person who understands the writing process the changes over time in writing development and specific techniques and procedures for teaching writing. In Scaffolding Young Writers A Writers Workshop Approach Linda J Dorn and Carla Soffos present a clear road map for implementing writers workshop in the primary grades. Adopting an apprenticeship approach the authors show how explicit teaching good models clear demonstrations established routines assisted teaching followed by independent practice and self regulated learning are all fundamental in establishing a successful writers workshop. There is a detailed chapter on organizing for writers workshop including materials components routines and procedures. Other chapters provide explicit guidelines for designing productive mini lessons and student conferences. Scaffolding Young Writers also features An overview of how children become writers. Analyses of students samples according to informal and formal writing assessments. Writing checklists benchmark behaviors and rubrics based on national standards. Examples of teaching interactions during mini lessons and writing conferences. Illustrations of completed forms and checklists with detailed descriptions and blank reproducible forms in the appendix for classroom use. Instruction is linked with assessment throughout the book so that all teaching interactions are grounded in what children already know and what they need to know as they develop into independent writers.

Sound Systems Anna Lyon, 2003

Sound Systems features separate sections on phonics instruction in pre K- K first and second grade classrooms detailing how instructional needs in phonics change over time as students acquire new skills throughout the primary years.
