Before we begin, I would like to thank the members of the Standing Senate Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology for their support. This committee conducted the most comprehensive hearings, invited the best in business and government. Unfortunately the most important issue you could have addressed by the committee did not fit your time. The subject of research and development should have been a high priority. Please have your committee consider it. This time I would like to thank our members for their support and for their excellent work. They have demonstrated your role (particularly at the highest level) in addressing the most important issues facing this country. Thank you.
