Can Our Civilisation Survive the Changes Generated by New Technology? Analysing Society and Media Vesna Lukovic, Marja Novak Vogric, 2024-07-09 Human history is a history of powerful civilisations which collapsed for various reasons but behind all of those reasons there was the inability of each civilisation to adapt to changes that were introduced by the human race itself or by the external environment Judging from history we can expect that our civilisation might collapse as well This book takes a look at the huge changes brought by new technology that was introduced by humans over the past few decades and might have the power to destroy the modern civilisation It analyses social disadvantages of the new technology and attempts to answer the question of what has to be done to enable society to adapt to the new technology embrace it and use it for the collective good It also explains how to recognize fake news why Orson Welles was a fake news visionary and why Monica Lewinsky was one of the first victims of the modern new technology Chinese Platforms Jian Lin, Wilfred Yang Wang, Ping Sun, 2025-12-10 The rise of the Chinese internet has reconfigured digital culture around the world From social media platforms such as WeChat and Douyin to utility platforms Didi and Eleme the Chinese platform economy has shown a remarkable capacity to innovate and grow incurring constraints as well as receiving protection from the Chinese state This is the first textbook to centre Chinese platforms in the transformation of the global internet Offering an overview of the history governance and social political implications the book shows how Chinese platforms are situated within the domestic political economy of China and the external geopolitics and cross border mobilities of capital technology and populations Topics covered include policy and governance social media entertainment e commerce digital labour and the Chinese diaspora Comparing and contrasting the Chinese platform ecology with its global counterpart the book argues that while Chinese platforms exhibit more effective economic and technological innovation and have strong cultural cachet they are subject to a far greater degree of state oversight including facilitation as well as correction and censorship Chinese Platforms is a required reading for students of Media and Communication Studies and China Studies as well as those interested in the rise of digital China and the implications for the global platform society Sams Teach Yourself UNIX System Administration in 21 Days Joan Ray, William Ray, 1999 In just 21 days users can go to beginner or intermediate to the capability level of performing more advanced system administrator functions The book covers the workshop configuration for all major flavors of UNIX and fills the void other books leave by being too narrowly focused Pacific Economic Bulletin, 2006 Employee Costs and the Decline in Health Insurance Coverage David M. Cutler, 2002 This paper examines why health insurance coverage fell despite the lengthy economic boom of the 1990s I show that insurance coverage declined primarily because fewer workers took up coverage when offered it not because fewer workers were offered insurance or were eligible for it The reduction in take up is associated with the increase in employee costs for health insurance Estimates suggest that increased costs to employees can explain the entire decline in take up rates in the 1990s PC Magazine
