Life gave her lemons so Trudy chucked them back. Trudy's life is a wreck. No job, a sick son and a thick stack of unpaid medical bills. Her family and friends keep trying to set her up. As if a man will solve all her problems, Trudy shuts them all down because she's got a foolproof plan this time around. She won't go out for so much as a latte until she graduates, finds steady work and pays off all her debt. After weeks of looking, she finally lands a paying job. It's only an interim assistant position but it comes with medical insurance. Everything is going exactly according to plan. Until she discovers someone is stealing from her new boss. Trudy reluctantly agrees to help him catch the thief, after all, if the business fails she's out of work but it grows harder and harder to ignore one tiny detail. Her boss is hotter than a summer day in Atlanta and he's flirting with her. But she will not be distracted from what really matters, not this time. She already learned her lesson the hard way: he isn't Mr. Right if you meet him at the wrong time. Can she stay the course? Or will she find that sometimes the best things in life aren't on the checklist?
