Bad Ink Riki Wilchins, 2024-07-09 In BAD INK award winning trans activist Riki Wilchins definitively chronicles how and why the nation's newspaper of record became the leading national voice for attacking transgender kids Beginning in 2015 just as A G Sulzberger was taking over as Publisher the New York Times underwent a strange shift from its long time support for transgender rights overnight it became the nation's leading voice attacking transgender kids In nearly 70 000 words in dozens of articles it attacked their right to transition to medical care to sports participation even the very idea that they were transgender It was as Tom Scocca summed up in Popula a plain old fashioned newspaper crusade But the Times crusade wasn't based on new reporting or fresh medical evidence but on talking points being promoted by white Christian nationalist organizations devoted to eradicating gay and transgender people And it was timed just as MAGA politicians introduced over 1 000 bills in scores of states to outlaw every aspect of trans kids lives It was all apparently part of Sulzberger's new plan to remake that liberal rag so it could appeal to right wing readers for the digital age And unfortunately it worked A much needed book that only becomes more necessary by the day Wilchins BAD INK presents an unflinching clear eyed analysis of the role the Times has played in reversing the course of trans rights Harron Walker VICE Combining close readings of the Times robust factchecking astute observation and Wilchins signature cutting prose BAD INK is a must read book for anyone who wants to understand how we got where we are today TJ Billard PhD Assoc Professor Northwestern Univ Director Center for Applied Transgender Studies I can't stop reading this book Bad Ink is the clearest most coherent dissection of the Times decision to trade journalistic integrity for clicks at the expense of trans kids Every reporter should be tasked with reading this book Kate Sosin The 19th News     American Reich Eric Lichtblau, 2026-01-06 From the Pulitzer winning author of the New York Times bestseller The Nazis Next Door A deeply reported exploration of the violent resurgence of hatred and white supremacy through the lens of Orange County California ground zero for racial extremism and the story of one brutal murder there that revealed the deep roots of violent bigotry as a bellwether for the country One night in early 2018 while he was home from college an Ivy League student named Blaze Bernstein snuck out of his parents house in Orange County Waiting for him in a car outside was an old high school classmate Sam Woodward someone who Blaze mostly remembered as a brooding bigoted loner But that night after months of flirtatious messaging Sam had succeeded in coaxing Blaze a gay Jewish sophomore at UPenn out for a rendezvous No one would ever see him alive again In American Reich veteran investigative journalist Eric Lichtblau uses the story of Blaze's life and death to shine a light on the epidemic of hate in Southern California and increasingly the nation as a whole Orange County has long been a bastion of the ultra right carved out of farmland as a haven for wealthy whites fleeing the diversifying metropolis to the north it was the birthplace of the far right John Birch Society a hub for neo Nazi recruitment and a powerful springboard for race baiting Republican politicians including Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan But in the years leading up to Blaze's disappearance Orange County was changing like the country as a whole it was rapidly diversifying to the outrage of many of its white residents No one was more opposed to the changes than America's resurgent neo Nazi groups one of which had recently gained a new member Sam Woodward Revealing how Orange County has exported racial hatred to the rest of the country and the world American Reich weaves this tragic tale together with stories from across the nation showing what this haunted place and the colliding paths of two of its residents reveal about America's fractured soul and our hope for healing Canadian Almanac and Directory 2021 Grey House Canada, 2020-12 The Canadian Almanac Directory is the most complete source of Canadian information available cultural professional and financial institutions legislative governmental judicial and educational organizations Canada's authoritative sourcebook for almost 160 years the Canadian Almanac Directory gives you access to almost 100 000 names and addresses of contacts throughout the network of Canadian institutions Wallace's Farmer, 2012 The Brains and Brawn
