Organizing Schools For Improvement Lessons From Chicago:

Organizing Schools for Improvement Anthony S. Bryk, Penny Bender Sebring, Elaine Allensworth, John Q. Easton, Stuart Lippescu, 2010-03-15 In 1988 the Chicago public school system decentralized granting parents and communities significant resources and authority to reform their schools in dramatic ways To track the effects of this bold experiment the authors of Organizing Schools for Improvement collected a wealth of data on elementary schools in Chicago Over a seven year period they identified one hundred elementary schools that had substantially improved and one hundred that had not What did the successful schools do to accelerate student learning The authors of this illuminating book identify a comprehensive set of practices and conditions that were key factors for improvement including school leadership the professional capacity of the faculty and staff and a student centered learning climate In addition they analyze the impact of social dynamics including crime critically examining the inextricable link between schools and their communities Putting their data onto a more human scale they also chronicle the stories of two neighboring schools with very different trajectories The lessons gleaned from this groundbreaking study will be invaluable for anyone involved with urban education
