developing strong partnerships with their students families Supporting parents as full partners in education this text stresses the need for educators to have positive working relationships with the students that they teach by understanding the families from which their students come In addition to covering the traditional topics of ethnic families change in families and parent teacher communication Olsen Fuller and their contributors delve further into the issues facing families today Looking at the effects of poverty advocacy the role of fathers domestic violence bullying school violence on families the authors offer practical techniques that give educators the tools to cope with the many factors affecting their students Integrating diversity cultural racial religious and sexual orientation throughout the text Home School Relations is the best text available to prepare educators for all the forms of diversity they will encounter in the field practical examples of building good home school partnerships and fostering parent involvement Haunts of Wild Game; Or, Poems of Woods, Wilds and Waters Isaac McLellan,1896

Religion and American Culture ,1998     Science Fiction and Political Philosophy Timothy McCranor,Steven Michels,2020-02-14 Sometimes called the literature of ideas science fiction is a natural medium for normative political philosophy Science fiction s focus on technology space and time travel non human lifeforms and parallel universes cannot help but invoke the perennial questions of political life including the nature of a just social order and who should rule freedom free will and autonomy and the advantages and disadvantages of progress Rather than offering a reading of a work inspired by a particular thinker or tradition each chapter presents a careful reading of a classic or contemporary work in the genre a novel short story film or television series to illustrate and explore the themes and concepts of political philosophy

Women's Vision in Western Literature Laurence M. Porter,2005-02-28 From ancient Greece through the present day women writers have confronted the male urge to make war by imagining communities in which intuitive bonding among individuals questions and replaces masculinist values of aggression and competition Women s Vision in Western Literature traces the gender gap in literature from 600 B C to the present day through an examination of seven extraordinary women writers from Sappho to Christa Wolf Combining close readings with a comprehensive overview of the careers of these women Porter shows how the threat the experience and the aftermath of war incites them to imagine tolerant empathic communities This careful consideration of these seven great writers brings to light an underappreciated aspect of Western women s writing Starting with Sappho Porter illustrates this ancient poet s ability to rewrite the Homeric war rhetoric to reflect a non possessive love experience Marie de France arranges traditional animal fables to imply an open ended situation ethics according to the author and Madame de Staël in a Europe torn by Napoleonic conquests advocates cross cultural unions among countries In the works of Mary Shelley we see the warnings of the dangers of vainglorious soulless technology and Virginia Woolf depicts intuitive bonding beyond gender stereotypes amid the ruins of war and crumbling empire He shows how Marguerite Yourcenar dreams of a new era of world peace after Hitler s defeat and how Christa Wolf tries to cope with her country s Nazi past even as she reaffirms European identity threatened by annihilations in
