Standards in Practice, Grades K-2 Linda K. Crafton, 1996 Viewing the English language arts standards developed by the National Council of Teachers of English and the International Reading Association as a point of departure rather than a final destination this book presents a number of ways to increase student ownership of learning The book details a pedagogy that recognizes respects and builds from individual language strengths and experiences and in each chapter presents a rich classroom portrait of the standards at work in student centered real world experiences and activities In the book students direct the inquiry process in chapters on interest groups and the Iditarod dogsled race in other chapters their teachers learn to respond to growing cultural diversity in the classroom shift from basal readers to literature based learning and rethink the purposes of assessment in a chapter on real kid report cards Throughout the book students and teachers learn together as they develop language and literacy skills for the coming century Each chapter contains references NKA Theory and Practice of Teaching David Perkins Page, 1893 Today's Education , 1978 Report of the United States Philippine Commission to the Secretary of War United States.
