AI-Mediated Language Education in the Metaverse Era Yu-Ju

Lan, Grace Yue Qi, Dorothy Chun, 2025-10-13 This book provides open discussions and dialogues around the latest research and development on applying AI and ubiquitous technologies into various language learning contexts. Living in the Metaverse era arguably a turning point in the evolution of the Internet it is vital for researchers and practitioners to rethink and reconsider human and AI relationships in transforming the way we teach learn and live in everyday life. Reinders et al 2022 amongst Computer Assisted Language Learning CALL researchers have emphasised the need to conduct more research on language learning in the classroom and beyond that makes real connections with what language learners do for their learning today. More importantly language educators must find ways to support language learning in this new era. What is urgently needed is a consolidation and synthesis of theoretical foundations, visions and the latest research findings and practices on the integration of AI and ubiquitous technologies and language education from diverse perspectives. This book comprising of contributions regarding contextualised AI mediated language learning and teaching provides researchers, practitioners and teacher educators with an opportunity to closely engage in research informed practices and intellectual dialogues on potential opportunities and challenges in the Metaverse era. It also helps to facilitate the development of equitable, sustainable and just practices for the diversity of language learners today.

Luxury Brand and Art Collaborations

Federica Carlotto, 2024-04-11 Over the past decades collaborative initiatives between luxury brands and the art world have been increasing in number and relevance. At first treated as a mere trend or as a marketing stunt in time luxury art collaborations have come to be acknowledged as one of the most effective ways luxury brands and artists can position themselves in today's market engaging with their clients and audiences. This book sheds light on the socio cultural valence of luxury art collaborations. The book explores luxury art collaborations in the context of postmodern consumption i.e. as a phenomenon deeply rooted in and emerging from the ways postmodern individuals value and consume objects, contents and ideas. More specifically the book covers how collaborations reflect the postmodern condition and liquid consumption practices, hybrid temporary hyperreal, the impact of luxury art collaborations on the evolution of luxury stores and museums and the emergence of hybrid spaces, art fairs, nomadic exhibitions, pop up stores, the temporal features of luxury art collaborations, shortlived duration and fast paced tempo, how luxury art collaborations reshuffle traditional status dynamics while drawing new boundaries of social distinction based on experience and access, why luxury brands and creatives are redefining their conventional identities, morphing into cultural entities and bricoleurs. The book appeals to a wide range of readers from academics and students in art business, luxury studies, consumption behaviour to professionals in the luxury industry and the art world. The book is also relevant to an international readership of non specialists interested in current social and cultural matters.
