Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've made mini meal prepped. Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping involves no waste and reduces time to eat outside your home whether that's at work or a budget When making your meal plan for the week you'll want to eat healthy meals without having to do it each day to get it done Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for those who value convenience and for more than just that With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food that's maximizing your time and budget is more valuable to you than doing something different every day meal prepping is a great idea I've generally not seen meal prep for the month or maybe one other person do a whole month Meal prepping for a whole month would be quite difficult but it's not impossible It would require a meal plan that's stored in the refrigerator for a long time in a slow cooker In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the quality of your refrigerated meals The length of time the food is acceptable to eat and the texture and flavor will be affected by the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then consult them with your own preferences In general I don't like to eat more than five days worth of food at a time but I find that by that fifth day the food usually tastes like it's been in the fridge for a long time
