Libraries as Dysfunctional Organizations and Workplaces

Spencer Acadia, 2022-11-30 Libraries as Dysfunctional Organizations and Workplaces expands the dysfunctional concept in the professional and academic LIS discourse by exposing the internal problematics of libraries especially at the social and organizational levels Including contributions written by LIS professionals and scholars the book demonstrates that although many libraries do well at attending to users and managing external information they often fail at taking care of their own employees and addressing internal workplace issues Acadia and the contributing authors explore the problem of dysfunctional libraries so that the LIS profession can come to terms with the systemic dysfunction in their institutions and begin solution oriented progress toward new and sustainable functionality The book analyzes the dysfunctional nature of modern libraries while simultaneously proposing solutions to reduce and alleviate dysfunction Through theory and application it takes an explicit practice based approach with the intent to inform and explain dysfunction as experienced in the library workplace at individual and structural levels and perspectives Libraries as Dysfunctional Organizations and Workplaces brings the dysfunction discourse to the attention of LIS academics and scholars so that further theoretical and empirical research can proceed from and subsequently be addressed in library and information schools The book will also be essential reading for librarians and LIS students currently working or preparing to work in public college and university libraries

is as old as time but ghosting is a modern twist on this ancient experience It translates this age old phenomenon into our modern world of screens delete buttons and blocking options Ghosting is not only an unpleasant experience or cowardly act but a symptom of our increasingly spectral that is mediated and virtual relationship to the world The overabundance of new modes of communication has invited an almost infinite number of contacts and conversations At the same time it has also offered an unprecedented opportunity for ignoring messages from others And just as we invented the car crash when we invented automobiles we also encouraged ghosting when we created the internet Ghosting creates an empty space in our minds a space faithfully tracing the silhouette of the one who ghosted us But unlike traditional ghosts today s ghosters simply disappear leaving behind a form of haunting that is closer to mourning mourning for someone who is not in fact dead In putting a kind of preemptive mourning into our everyday affairs ghosting tells us much about the current human relationship or non relationship to a shared sense of mortality purpose and spirit This book the first sustained analysis of ghosting traces the source of this vexed experience to and through our current media ecology technological networks political landscape collective psychology romantic mantras and deep sense of social neglect
