The WISE Journal Klaudio Muca, Carsten Primdahl, 2022-03-09 The WISE Journal investigates the dynamic relationship between architecture, humans and human activities in learning and work environments. The publication brings into conversation different scientific disciplines and some of the world's foremost thinkers. This extensive mixed media journal offers its readers food for thought on how to translate this cross disciplinary exploration into fulfilling long lasting architecture intentionally stimulating spaces that support productivity, learning and well being. The e book contains a series of interviews in video and podcast format alongside numerous illustrations that support articles, case studies and essays. For in depth readers the publication provides hundreds of pages of text with thorough references to peer reviewed articles. Education institutions should remember that their ultimate customer is not the students nor their parents but society at large. The WISE Journal beautifully demonstrates the intricate impact that education has on space, skills and society. Ben Nelson, Founder Minerva University. The WISE Journal has identified a set of important topics whose relationship to one another can benefit from appropriate examples and thoughtful reflections. Howard Gardner, Harvard Graduate School of Education. The WISE Journal brings into conversation the many diverse disciplines involved in the design of intentional spaces. This cross pollination of research theory, insights and practice is essential to advancing architecture for wellbeing and lifelong learning. Susan Magsamen, Executive Director International Arts Mind Lab. Artist Management in the Music Industries Yiyi Wang, 2024-11-19 Artist Management in the Music Industries. A Sui Generis Form of Management provides one of the first substantive academic examinations of the role of an artist manager. This book deconstructs the nature of Artist Management, unveiling the pivotal role of the artist manager in creating and sustaining a dynamic environment referred to as the Loop, where success is realised by navigating four variables: Risks, Relationships, Emotions and Expectations. 2Rs and 2Es within and beyond the Loop. This book offers a new perspective on Artist Management as a sui generis discipline that does not fit easily inside standard conceptions of management. Featuring ethnography and interviews this book sheds light on the realworld challenges and successes in the field. It is a must read for researchers, students and practitioners in the music business, music marketing and artist management, offering invaluable insights into the practices that shape the cultural landscape.
