Dear [Mr./Ms./Mx.] [Hiring Manager's Last Name],

The first paragraph should contain a self-introduction. Write who you are, where your expertise lies, where you found the job posting (or who referred you), and why you want to apply.

The second paragraph should respond directly to the job description. Describe how your relevant experiences, skills, and abilities help you meet the company's needs. To make that easier, you can (and should) literally include words and phrases from the job description here.

- You can also include a bulleted list of your accomplishments
- Make sure you quantify (add numbers to) these bullet points
- A cover letter with numbers is 100% better than one without

To go the extra mile, research the company and try to find out what they are doing — and why — given the current state of their industry. Explain how you can fit into that framework, and help push the company forward and achieve any goals you suspect they have.

The final paragraph is the “call to action” portion of your cover letter. Inform the hiring manager that you'd love to get interviewed. Give them your contact information. Tell them you'll reach out again next week if you don't hear back. Thank them for their time.

Sincerely,

Your Name

Want to write the perfect cover letter But don't have time to read through a 300 page book first Then Get It Done is for you Here's why it's been a Kindle best seller for six years in a row

- 1 It's fast The whole book takes about 30 minutes to read
- 2 It's to the point It breaks the cover letter down to 12 parts and gives you a precise template to complete for every single step
- 3 It works I developed this system while serving as a Recruiter for Teach For America I've since taught it to MBAs as a Career Coach at the University of Michigan leading to job offers from Apple GE Microsoft Amazon LinkedIn and Google And the system has even been featured in U.S. News I was just another piece of paper in the deck Jeremy's beneficial insight to the cover letter was against my traditional understanding His direct nature and step by step guidance proved to be beneficial in my search I was able to go through the book and develop a brand new cover letter from scratch in less than an hour Given the price of the book and the time it takes to go through there is absolutely no excuse why you shouldn't buy it right now and start fresh in conveying your background to your next employer

LJ If you like me hate writing cover letters then this book is for you Before reading this book I was not even using cover letters because I thought they didn't matter and I didn't know what to say I just sent as many resumes as possible to as many job postings as possible This book changed my life It convinced me no doubt one of the most shameless no cover letter resume spammers out there to stop and write a cover letter Plus Schifeling lays out a series of clear quick steps that make it easy and anxiety free
