The Weeks and Months of Sport David Faris,2010 A guide to the unique sports personality of each week and month of the year Cover The American Football Revolution Ben Isaacs,2023-08-21 The American Football Revolution How Britain Fell In Love With The NFL is the remarkable story of how the USA's biggest sport converted a sceptical soccer mad nation In 1982 an esoteric new TV channel started beaming NFL highlights into British homes and building up a small but devoted audience just as hooliganism was turning people off the UK's national game A year later the Global Cup saw the Vikings and Cardinals play a flop preseason game at Wembley Now 40 years later the UK is the NFL's second home The marketing muscle of the league played a part but it's the fans staying up late to watch on TV creating their own content and booking holidays to the States to coincide with big games that have made the sport a hit From the man who sold his home so he could tour the NFL's tailgate parties to the one who turned his love of the sport into an all consuming passion for fantasy football these are the stories of the fans who transformed the NFL from a curiosity to a mainstay in the British sporting landscape

Grano,2017-06 In his persuasive study The Eternal Present of Sport Daniel Grano rethinks the sport religion relationship by positioning sport as a source of theological trouble Focusing on bodies time movement and memory he demonstrates how negative theology can be practically and theoretically useful as a critique of elite televised sport Grano asserts that it is precisely through sport's highest religious ideals that controversies are taking shape and constituting points of political and social rupture He examines issues of transcendence legacy e.g. greatest ever or all time and witnessing through instant replay which undermine institutional authority Grano also reflects on elite athletes representing especially powerful embodiments of religious and social conflict including around issues related to gender sexuality ability doping traumatic brain injury and institutional greed Elite sport is in a period of profound crisis It is through the ideals Grano analyzes that we can imagine a radically alternative future for elite sport

From 1921 to 1939 Joe F. Carr guided the sport of professional football with intelligence, hard work and a passion that built the foundation of what the NFL has become the number one sports organization in the world. But Carr's greatest achievement was creating a vision for the NFL as a big city sport. By skillfully recruiting financially capable owners to operate NFL franchises in big market cities he created the solid foundation for the league's successful future. While the sport has grown to unheard of heights Carr's name and accomplishments have been lost and forgotten. The Man Who Built the National Football League Joe F.
