Native American Brain Tanning Hides And Other Methods:

North American Aboriginal hide tanning Morgan Baillargeon, 2010-01-01 North American Aboriginal Hide Tanning examines the methodology tools and spiritual aspects of what was once almost a lost art Over the course of research that has spanned some 30 years the author has interviewed more than 40 tanners from the Northwest Territories to Oklahoma The result is a volume that includes chapters on 15 different tanners and their recipes practical information on tools and techniques as well as helpful tips for those interested in trying this traditional process for themselves Although not intended as a complete how to manual this book is certain to whet the reader s appetite for further investigation Published in English

American Indian Culture: Hides and hidework-Syllabaries Carole A. Barrett, Harvey Markowitz, 2004 Three volume set covers all aspects of American Indian culture past and present The Age of Deer Erika Howsare, 2025-01-07 A masterful hybrid of nature writing and cultural studies that investigates our connection with deer from mythology to biology from forests to cities from coexistence to control and extermination and invites readers to contemplate the paradoxes of how humans interact with and shape the natural world Deer have been an important part of the world that humans occupy for millennia They re one of the only large animals that can thrive in our presence In the 21st century our relationship is full of contradictions We hunt and protect them we cull them from suburbs while making them an icon of wilderness we see them both as victims and as pests But there is no doubt that we have a connection to deer in mythology and story in ecosystems biological and digital in cities and in forests Delving into the historical roots of these tangled attitudes and how they play out in the present Erika Howsare observes scientists capture and collar fawns hunters show off their trophies a museum interpreter teaching American history while tanning a deer hide an animal control officer collecting the carcasses of deer killed by sharpshooters and a woman bottle raising orphaned fawns in her backyard As she reports these stories Howsare s eye is always on the bigger picture Why do we look at deer in the ways we do and what do these animals reveal about human involvement in the natural world For readers of H is for Hawk and Fox I The Age of Deer offers a unique and intimate perspective on a very human relationship Primitive Technology II David Wescott, 2001-08-20 The Stone Age is the common denominator of mankind and through experimental archeology the relearning and replication of ancient skills we take a step of discovery and understanding into this rich past In this collection drawn from the pages of the Bulletin of Primitive Technology learn to create tools to fabricate more complex technologies master the arts of the bow and arrow build a shelter or fashion clothing from fibers or buckskin Primitive Technology II Ancestral Skills provides the guide to rediscovery of the skills and crafts that bind us all into this great human family When Technology Fails Matthew R. Stein, Matthew Stein, 2008-03-27 Matthew Stein s comprehensive guide to sustainable living skills gives you the tools you need to fend for yourself and your family in times of emergency or disaster It also goes a step further giving sound instructions on how to become self reliant in seemingly stable times and for the long term by adopting a sustainable lifestyle
