Navigating World History Historians Create A Global Past:

Navigating World History P. Manning, 2003-05-15 World history has expanded dramatically in recent years primarily as a teaching field and increasingly as a research field. Growing numbers of teachers and Ph.D.s in history are required to teach the subject. They must be current on topics from human evolution to industrial development in Song dynasty China to today's disease patterns and then link these disparate topics into a coherent course. Numerous textbooks in print and in preparation summarize the field of world history at an introductory level. But good teaching also requires advanced training for teachers and access to a stream of new research from scholars trained as world historians. In this book Patrick Manning provides the first comprehensive overview of the academic field of world history. He reviews patterns of research and debate and proposes guidelines for study by teachers and by researchers in world history.

Teaching World History in the Twenty-first Century: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp, 2015-02-12 This practical handbook is designed to help anyone who is preparing to teach a world history course or wants to teach it better. It includes contributions by experienced teachers who are reshaping world history education and features new approaches to the subject as well as classroom tested practices that have markedly improved world history teaching.

Recent Themes in World History and the History of the West Donald A. Yerxa, 2009 New insights on global histories and Western civilization from leading scholars in the field. Described as the New York Review of Books for history Historically Speaking has emerged as one of the most distinctive historical publications in recent years actively seeking out contributions from a pantheon of leading voices in historical discourse from both inside and outside academia. Recent Themes in World History and the History of the West represents some of the best writing on Western civilization and world history in the past five years. This collection of essays and interviews from Historically Speaking gives leading historians approaches to the continually evolving field of world history with a specific emphasis on the relationship of Western civilization to the history of the world. The book also discusses the effect of empire on global history and the many ways empire continues to manifest in the contemporary world. The contributors discuss world history as an intricate story of the connections within the global community rather than a tidy static narrative that attempts to summarize everything in our global past. In this volume the study of world history is presented as a constantly comparative endeavor concerned with the major themes that link and divide humanity.

Recent Themes in the History of Africa and the Atlantic World Donald A. Yerxa,2008 Drawn from the articles and forums in the Historical Societys tabloid publication Historically Speaking these pieces explore the relationship of Africa to world history map the current state of the burgeoning field of Atlantic history and debate the accuracy of Olaudah Equianos seminal narrative The standard approach of historians often compresses the African past into interpretive frameworks that leave Africans without a history of their own A case is made here for an alternative approach a multicentric world history that gives voice to the various ways Africans experienced the past and an impressive array of Africanist and world historians respond The volume also assesses the state of Atlantic Studies and includes a spirited forum on a provocative thesis that Olaudah Equiano author of the most important account available of the horrific Middle Passage was actually born in South Carolina and not Africa Designed to serve as a companion text for courses in African Atlantic and world history this volume will also appeal to lay readers interested in contemporary approaches to these topics The Easternization of the West Nordin Hussin,2006 Critical International Relations Theory After 25 Years Nicholas John Rengger,Ben Thirkell-White,2007-09-03 This 2007 book brings together a team of world class critical theory scholars Syllecta Classica ,2007 Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman,2016-12-06 Essays in part one of Theatre History Studies Vol 35 address theatrical production in very specific historical contexts among them German theatre from the rubble of Berlin and German nationalist mass spectacles Essays in part two are devoted to the theme of Rethinking the Maternal in contemporary and historical theatre Also included is the Robert A Schanke Award winning essay Whispers from a Silent Past Inspiration and Memory in Natasha Tretheway s Native Guard a keynote essay by Irma Mayorga and eighteen reviews of new book publications of note Theatre History Studies published since 1981 by the Mid American Theatre Conference MATC is a leading scholarly publication in the field of theatrical history and theory The conference encompasses the states of Illinois Iowa Nebraska Kansas Missouri Minnesota North Dakota South Dakota Wisconsin Indiana Michigan and Ohio The purpose of the conference is to unite persons and organizations within the region with an interest in theatre and to promote the growth and development of all forms of theatre A History of the Ancient Southwest Stephen H. Lekson,2009 According to archaeologist Stephen H Lekson much of what we think we know about the Southwest has been compressed into conventions and classifications and orthodoxies This book challenges and reconfigures these accepted notions by telling two parallel stories one about the development personalities and institutions of Southwestern archaeology and the other about interpretations of what actually happened in the ancient past While many works would have us believe that nothing much ever happened in the ancient Southwest this book argues that the region experienced rises and falls kings and commoners war and peace triumphs and failures In this view Chaco Canyon was a geopolitical reaction to the Colonial Period Hohokam expansion and the Hohokam Classic Period was the product of refugee Chacoan nobles chased off the Colorado Plateau by angry farmers Far to the south Casas Grandes was a failed attempt to create a Mesoamerican state and modern Pueblo people with societies so different from those at Chaco and Casas Grandes deliberately rejected these monumental hierarchical episodes of their past From the publisher The second printing of A History of the Ancient Southwest has corrected the errors noted below SAR Press regrets an error on Page 72 paragraph 4 also Page 275 note 2 regarding absolute dates 50 000 dates was incorrectly published as half a million dates Also P 125 lines 13 14 Between 21 000 and 27 000 people lived there should read Between 2 100 and 2 700 people lived there
