American Notes & Queries ,1975 Village Gone Viral Marit Tolo Østebø,2021-02-16 In 2001 Ethiopian Television aired a documentary about a small rural village called Awra Amba where women ploughed men worked in the kitchen and so called harmful traditional practices did not exist The documentary radically challenged prevailing images of Ethiopia as a gender conservative and aid dependent place and Awra Amba became a symbol of gender equality and sustainable development in

Ethiopia and beyond Village Gone Viral uses the example of Awra Amba to consider the widespread circulation and use of modeling practices in an increasingly transnational and digital policy world. With a particular focus on traveling models policy models that become viral through various vectors ranging from NGOs and multilateral organizations to the Internet. Marit Tolo steb critically examines the hidden dimensions of models and model making. While a policy model may be presented as a best practice one that can be scaled up and successfully applied to other places the local impacts of the model paradigm are far more ambivalent potentially increasing social inequalities reinforcing social stratification and concealing injustice. With this book steb ultimately calls for a reflexive critical anthropology of the production circulation and use of models as instruments for social change. Humour of Vladimir Nabokov Paul Benedict Grant, 2024-09-30 Many critics classify Vladimir Nabokov as a highbrow humourist a refined wordsmith overly fond of playful puzzles and private in jokes whose art appeals primarily to an intellectually sophisticated readership. This study presents a more balanced portrait placing equal emphasis on the broader earthier humour that is such a marked feature of Nabokov's writing which draws on the human body and all things physical for its laughs sex and scatology farce and slapstick. Moving between the metaphysical and the physical the cosmic and the comic mind and matter it presents Nabokov as a writer at home in both high and low forms of humour a comedian who is capable of producing as many belly laughs as brainteasers and of appealing to a much wider readership than is commonly supposed. Women and the Making of Poetry in Ariosto's Orlando Furioso Ita Mac Carthy, 2007 This book examines the representation of women in the Orlando furioso and the making of a poem that both curses and blesses them. Psalms Athalya Brenner-Idan, Gale A. Yee, Daniel Patte, 2024-02-22 Diverse contextual readings of the Psalms followed by short reflective commentaries. Anthony Burgess Paul W. Boytinck, 1985 Exquisite Corpse, 1983 Mozart in Motion Patrick Mackie, 2021-09-02 Mozart is one of the most familiar and beloved icons of our culture but how much do we really understand of his music and what can it reveal to us of the great composer. In exhilarating transformative prose Patrick Mackie mixes biographical storytelling with deep dives into the experience of listening to Mozart's music to reveal a musician in dialogue with culture at its most sweepingly progressive when Europe was caught between two historical worlds. We follow Mozart from his adolescence in Salzburg to his early death from his close and rivalrous relationship with his father to his romantic attachments from his hugely successful operas to intimate compositions on the keyboard. Mackie leads the reader through the major and lesser known moments of the composer's life and brings alive the teeming swivelling modernity of eighteenth century Europe. In this era of rococo painting surrealist aesthetics and political turbulence Mozart reckoned with a searing talent which threatened to overwhelm him all the while pushing him to extraordinary feats of musicianship. Returned to the volatility of the eighteenth century we hear Mozart's music in all its audacious vividness gaining fresh perspectives on why his works still move us so intensely today as we continue to search for a modernity he imagined into being. The Saturday Evening Post, 1910-02 The New York Times Book Review
