Conrad,1821-12-23 I don t know whether I ought to offer an apology for this collection which has more to do with life than with letters Its appeal is made to orderly minds This to be frank about it is a process of tidying up which from the nature of things cannot be regarded as premature The fact is that I wanted to do it myself because of a feeling that had nothing to do with the considerations of worthiness or unworthiness of the small but unbroken pieces collected within the covers of this volume Of course it may be said that I might have taken up a broom and used it without saying anything about it That certainly is one way of tidying up But it would have been too much to have expected me to treat all this matter as removable rubbish All those things had a place in my life Whether any of them deserve to have been picked up and ranged on the shelf this shelf I cannot say and frankly I have not allowed my mind to dwell on the question I was afraid of thinking myself into a mood that would hurt my feelings for those pieces of writing whatever may be the comment on their display appertain to the character of the man    The Works of Joseph Conrad ,1924    The Collected Letters of Joseph Conrad Joseph Conrad,1983
