To the Heart of It Maxine Platt,2003 In April 2002 I went to New York with four co workers to volunteer at Ground Zero for a week At the time I was the director of an AmeriCorps program in Wisconsin I announced this opportunity to the AmeriCorps members serving in my program and then coordinated the trip for those who were able to come I knew this experience would change my life so I brought a journal with me to record my thoughts and experiences I wanted to remember what it was like when I was there so I brought the journal with me everywhere I went and wrote in it every opportunity I had Reading it can be difficult for me but I do it when I feel the need to reflect I wanted to write out the notes of my journal because I needed to release my feelings from Ground Zero I also felt it was important to share this experience with others Many of my loved ones asked me what it was like volunteering at Ground Zero but I couldn t verbalize it this memoir is a recollection of what I experienced while in New York based on my journal I changed some of the names to respect the privacy of those I met To separate the time I spent exploring New York and time at Ground Zero boldface type highlights time spent at Ground Zero Because it was such an emotional experience for me and because I experienced a lot some details are fuzzy but this is how I remember New York and Ground Zero This is my experience from the bus trip to volunteering at Ground Zero and exploring New York
