

name, no spark ever came out of his wheel, while Ranga created a regular pyrotechnic display and passing children stood transfixed by the spectacle. "All right," Ranga would retort, "I do not grudge the 65 poor fellow his luck, but he will impart to your knife the sharpness of an egg; after that I won't be able to do anything for you. You must not think that anyone and everyone could handle steel. Most of these fellows don't know the difference between a knife

 75 execution, he could always turn around and retort that so much depended upon the quality of metal, and the action of sun and rain, and above all the care in handling, but he never argued with his customers; he just resharpened the knives free of cost on his next 80 round. Customers always liked to feel that they had won a point, and Ranga would say to himself, "After all, it costs nothing, only a few more turns of the wheel and a couple of sparks off the stone to please the eye."
