Requiem of a Spy Chris Adams, 2010-07 THE FBI ARREST 12 RUSSIAN SPIES Newspaper headlines radio and television networks announced the startling news A dozen or more undocumented Russian agents were caught operating undercover within the United States This event might well have occurred back during the last Millennia and did but this is 2010 the Cold War has been over for almost twenty years or has it Were we surprised After all the President of the United States had within the previous week of the arrests hosted the President of Russia to an Official State Visit As this book enters the final publication phase I could not have created a more perfect although factually unsettling introduction to the exciting and factual story which you are about to begin The most powerful and aggressive intelligence and secret police organizations in the world have for centuries belonged to Russia and during the Cold War the Soviet Union The long and sordid history of Russian secret police operations and tactics dates back to the 17th Century and Ivan the Terrible The Soviets known for their paranoia and mackorova masquerade frequently renamed these agencies in attempts to foil foreign interests The name changes were largely cosmetic and their foul work never changed Soviet leaders throughout the Cold War found it expedient to pit the KGB and the GRU against one another for maximum benefit of desired objectives Although the story herein is one of fiction perhaps it is more appropriately one of faction a fictional story derived from factual history and as we now know persists today Herein I have delved into many of the factual truths about these two Cold War secret spy organizations their sordid and brutal deeds their recruiting training and surveillance tactics agent operations and exploitation of Western technologies Enjoy Academy Awards Oscar Annual Robert A. Osborne, 1974 Returning Migrant Workers United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 1986 The research reports and statements by government representatives contained in this volume were presented at the Policy Workshop on International Migration in Asia and the Pacific held at Bangkok from 15 21 October 1985 The workshop was the final activity of a 2 year Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific ESCAP project on international migration policy in Asia and the Pacific funded by the UN Fund for Population Activities The 2nd phase of the project includes the studies reported in this volume which were intended to be exploratory They were meant to assess the current state of knowledge regarding return migration and to identify critical issues that would require further investigation 5 of the studies are concerned with return migration from temporary employment primarily in the Middle East Because many of the labor sending countries of the Mediterranean basin experienced a rapid expansion of labor emigration largely to northern and western Europe and a contraction of the flow and increase in return migration prior to current trends in Asian labor migration it was felt that a background paper on that experience would be value to policy makers in the ESCAP region Migration from the Pacific sub region of ESCAP is both of more variable duration and less heavily labor oriented than temporary migration from Asian countries to the Middle East The workshop s objectives were 1 to bring together researchers and policy makers to review carefully the results of the 7 studies carried out as part of the project 2 to relate the research findings to feasible government policies for the reintegration of returning labor migrants and 3 to make and disseminate policy recommendations to governments in the ESCAP region
