Clear and Present Safety Michael A. Cohen, 2019-03-26 An eye opening look at the history of national security fear mongering in America and how it distracts citizens from the issues that really matter What most frightens the average American Terrorism North Korea Iran But what if none of these are probable or consequential threats to America What if the world today is safer freer wealthier healthier and better educated than ever before What if the real dangers to Americans are noncommunicable diseases gun violence drug overdoses even hospital infections In this compelling look at what they call the Threat Industrial Complex Michael A Cohen and Micah Zenko explain why politicians policy analysts academics and journalists are misleading Americans about foreign threats and ignoring more serious national security challenges at home Cohen and Zenko argue that we should ignore Washington's threat mongering and focus instead on furthering extraordinary global advances in human development and economic and political cooperation At home we should focus on that which actually harms us and undermines our quality of life substandard schools and healthcare inadequate infrastructure gun violence income inequality and political paralysis
