Catherin & Alexander Love on the Internet T.R. Espinola,2013-01-31 Catherin Alexander Love on the Internet is about two romantically driven people that have been for the greatest part of their lives unlucky in love They see the romance in the rose opening its bloom for the world to see the beauty held within as well as in the ability for two people with romantic hearts to find each other enjoying the poetic beauty of the world around them However each feels disappointed in the fact that they have not found the person that brings loves star into focus Catherin a hopeful romantic is a woman that craves romance enjoys being a woman and loves being feminine She envisions herself in romantic scenarios with a man that can hold her heart in his hands capable of loving her for the rest of her life On the other hand Alexander is not only a man of action an individual that has always enjoyed adventure never missing an opportunity to feel the adrenaline run through his veins but also a true romantic and a Southern gentleman He believes strength is best found in the way in which a man loves the woman in his life and in the way he lives his life as an example for others to follow After experiencing another bad date he decides to follow the advice of a friend and join an Internet dating site Catherin experiencing a similar situation over six thousand miles away does the same allowing them both to find a love that bridges two completely different worlds uniting their hearts forever together

Bibliography of Natural History Travel Narratives Anne S. Troelstra, 2017-06-01 Anne Troelstra's fine bibliography is an outstanding and ground breaking work He has provided the academic world with a long needed bibliographical record of human endeavour in the field of the natural sciences The travel narratives listed here encompass all aspects of the natural world in every part of the globe but are especially concerned with its fauna flora and fossil remains Such eyewitness accounts have always fascinated their readers but they were never written solely for entertainment fragmentary though they often are these narratives of travel and exploration are of immense importance for our scientific understanding of life on earth providing us with a window on an ever changing and often vanishing natural world Without such records of the past we could not track document or understand the significance of changes that are so important for the study of zoogeography With this book Troelstra gives us a superb overview of natural history travel narratives The well over four thousand detailed entries ranging over four centuries and all major western European languages are drawn from a wide range of sources and include both printed books and periodical contributions While no subject bibliography by a single author can attain absolute completeness Troelstra's work is comprehensive to a truly remarkable degree The entries are arranged alphabetically by author and chronologically by the year of first publication under the author's name A brief biography with the scope and range of their work is given for each author every title is set in context the contents including illustrations are described and all known editions and translations are cited In addition there is a geographical index that cross refers between authors and the regions visited and a full list of the bibliographical and biographical sources used in compiling the bibliography
