In 2008 the photographer Jerome Sessini started the Mexican project a dive into the drug cartel war in Mexico. This compelling reportage lasting two years is a valuable document about the most dangerous cities in the country Culiacán, Tijuana, and especially Ciudad Juárez. In 2010 this work was awarded with the F Award for Concerned Photography. Jerome Sessini's ongoing exploration of drug related violence in Mexico at the US border is remarkable for its sustained engagement with an increasingly alarming and dangerous reality for its attention to concrete particulars and for its ambition to convey the scope and complexity of the conflict.
