Who's Better, Who's Best

in Baseball? Elliott Kalb, 2005-02-16 Guaranteed to spark debate among baseball diehards with its controversial pick for 1999, Elliott Kalb's work is beyond excellent. He thinks in story lines and uses numbers to make compelling and often original points. Bob Costas: In the world of major league sports, Elliott Kalb aka Mr. Stats is the Sultan of Stats, the Tsar of Trivia, and the Final Word in armchair athlete disputes. Now hot on the heels of his controversial bestseller Who's Better, Who's Best in Basketball comes a book that is guaranteed to raise both hackles and cheers from baseball fans from coast to coast. More than a book of lists, Who's Better, Who's Best in Baseball interweaves numbers, facts, and anecdotes to offer a grand perspective on the entire history of the sport and its 100 all-time greatest of the greats, including players from the Negro Leagues. Features interviews with MLB experts, players, and coaches including Bob Costas, Bud Selig, Vin Scully, Joe Buck, Tim Lincecum, Johnny Bench, and others. Argues the popular debate: what means more, modern training and modern medicine, overall athletics popularity, or genetics. New York Magazine, 1991-04-15 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Detroit Tigers 1984 Mark Pattison, David Raglin, 2012-12 The 1984 Detroit tigers roared out of the gate winning their first nine games of the season and compiling an eye-popping 35-5 record after the campaign's first 40 games, still the best start ever for any team in major league history. The tigers led wire-to-wire in 1984, becoming only the third team in the modern era of the majors to have done so. And Detroit's determination and tenacity resulted in a sweep of the Kansas City Royals in the AL playoffs and a five-game triumph over the San Diego Padres in the World Series. And Tigers fans will tell you that the bottom of the eighth inning in Game Five was the first time Kirk Gibson hit an iconic home run in the Fall Classic. Detroit Tigers 1984: What a Start, What a Finish, an effort by the Society of American Baseball Research's BioProject Committee brings together biographical profiles of every Tiger from that magical season, plus those of field management, top executives, the broadcasters, even venerable Tiger Stadium and the city itself.

Baseball, 1986 This is the most comprehensive bibliography of baseball literature available, updating and expanding Anton Groban's Guide to the Literature of Baseball 1975. The 21,000 citations are arranged by subject classifications. There are sections on the World Series, baseball cards, business aspects, the minor leagues, each of the teams, and a biographical section covering those connected with the game. Annotations are provided for many entries. There is an author index, title index, and information on obtaining difficult-to-locate material, including addresses. Based on research at the National Baseball Library in Cooperstown, N.Y., this work by a professional bibliographer will be the cornerstone of baseball research for the next decade.
