Annoteren via social tagging , Blockchain in Energy Jan Veuger,2024-02-06 The global energy crisis is accelerating and within Europe the European Union EU is actively working to address this challenge through policy frameworks and political management However the energy market remains fiercely competitive prompting us to explore alternative energy sources and rethink how we generate distribute and utilize power This in turn raises questions about the allocation of power energy availability and usage in various contexts Furthermore the digital realm is undergoing rapid transformation across multiple sectors Drawing on my expertise in blockchain technology I recognize numerous opportunities to enhance the transparency and reliability of data related to energy issues By leveraging blockchain we can ensure that the information available is trustworthy and insightful for every user The aim of this book is to share my knowledge in the realm of energy and blockchain It addresses the urgency of addressing global energy challenges and acknowledges the pivotal role of the EU in this endeavor It also highlights the intensity of competition in the energy market and the need for innovative approaches The book also demonstrates how blockchain can contribute to solving these issues empowering individuals and organizations with reliable information and insights in the field of energy and blockchain technology

Atypical predicate-argument relations Thierry Ruchot,Pascale Van Praet,2016-12-08 This book deals with atypical predicate argument relations Although the relations between predicates especially verbal and their arguments have been long studied most studies are concerned with typical telic verbs in the past tense indicative mood active voice with all arguments expressed Recently linguists have become interested in other types of predicate argument relations displaying atypical properties be they morphological or syntactic in one language or cross linguistically The articles in this book investigate some of these argument marking with some special groups of verbs arguments not foreseen in the verb valency and contributed by the construction verbs in idiomatic constructions valency changing operations arguments in thetic sentences or in participle constructions etc The authors work within different theoretical frameworks and on various languages from more current languages like English Spanish French or German to Hebrew or lamaholot an Austronesian language
