College Rankings 2025:

Innovative Paths to Quality Higher Education in Asia Angela Yung-Chi Hou, Jung Cheol Shin, Bjørn Stensaker, 2026-01-01 This book discusses essential topics on understanding the development and changes in higher educational systems in Asia and explores governance quality assurance stakeholder engagement and innovation in the post massified era from an Asian perspective. While each of the three sections has a particular focus area the common thread across all chapters is the local responses and relevance to global discourse. In each chapter authors highlight the ways in which concerns were raised compromises made and challenges overcome. This book serves as a valuable resource for various stakeholders including university administrators admissions counselors higher education professionals and managers working with international programs students in higher education programs policy makers scholars interested in higher education and policies various knowledge industries and Quality Assurance QA agencies. Readers learn from the challenges discussed and be inspired to design and implement innovative initiatives and strategies. Given the diversity of partnerships and innovation in research teaching and learning there is no one way or how to list of steps for effective higher education systems. Rather readers glean insights from various scholars who recognize the value of collaborating across oceans and borders.

Folk Dances of Odisha: Footprints on the Sands of time

My City Links, 2026-01-05 An Intangible Heritage that Needs to be at the Heart of Contemporary Existence. Deeply rooted in tradition and culture Odisha's folk dances have for generations shone a light on a way of life itself. Sadly these distinctive forms of artistic cultural and social expression now face a crisis of identity and a grim battle for survival. Our Cover Story delves into the origins and significance of folk dance forms from different regions of Odisha to reinforce what they stand for and why they should be preserved as well as promoted. Elsewhere in this edition we continue with our series on another tradition an architectural one that imparts a distinct identity to the temple city of Bhubaneswar. This time City Tales decodes the historical and cultural significance of the Godavari Tank in Bindusagar. Soil has a way of balancing and controlling disparate facets of nature in a manner that provides the ideal conditions to nurture life. Recent years have seen a renewed acknowledgment of the important role it plays be it in making cities healthy and sustainable or in ensuring food security and resilience. City Beat brings you a special feature to mark World Soil Day. Do you turn a packaged product around to get crucial information about it before making a purchase? Or do you base your purchase simply on what is advertised in bold letters on the front? On National Consumer Rights Day City Beat presents a ready reckoner and a list of Dos and Don'ts. Our CityZen for this edition is Rajlaxmi Chowdhury or Ria as she is known in the online reading community She talks about how she began what keeps her ticking and the latest trends in the world of Boostagram City Literature meanwhile takes a close look at romance in Odia writing The resurgence of styles from Y2K or year 2000 is the latest example of fashion repeating itself at regular intervals Our section on fashion and lifestyle brings you the low down on this highly visible revival City Sports celebrates the talent and perseverance of four young cricketers from Odisha who played a key role as India won the first ever Blind Women s T20 World Cup held in Sri Lanka

Influence of University Rankings on Institutions: Ethics, Controversies, and Competition

Kayyali, Mustafa,2025-10-16 The influence of university rankings on higher education institutions reveals ethical concerns controversies and increased global competition As rankings become a measure of academic prestige many universities align their strategies with ranking criteria sometimes at the expense of educational values This pursuit of higher rankings often drives institutions to invest in research output and international visibility while potentially neglecting teaching quality or community engagement Criticisms emerge over the transparency and fairness of ranking methodologies raising questions about their validity and the consequences they produce Further exploration into the ethical implications of rankings may reveal new contentious practices and competitive dynamics shaped by the prioritization of university rankings Influence of University Rankings on Institutions Ethics Controversies and Competition explores how the pursuit of higher university rankings influences institutional priorities behaviors and decision making processes It examines the ethical dilemmas methodological controversies and competitive pressures that arise from global ranking systems This book covers topics such as mental health teacher education and ethics and bias and is a useful resource for educators policymakers government officials psychologists academicians researchers and scientists

Wanting What's Best Sarah W. Jaffe,2022-05-24 When privileged parents say that they want what s best for their child they don t consciously add and not for other children Yet the practical effect of parents with privilege relentlessly pursuing their own child s interests is that other children are left behind Author Sarah W Jaffe interviewed dozens of parents who are resisting the cultural pressures to seek the best for only their kids while navigating some of the major decisions that parents make about childcare schools how they use their time and money and the legacy they hope to leave their kids These may not feel like political decisions but each either contributes to a system where only a few can thrive or takes a small step toward dismantling it Our children are watching and learning from how we make choices How we treat the people who care for them tells them how they should behave as a boss Where we send them to school teaches them about their place in the world How we spend our time and money sends them more powerful messages about how to spend theirs than any lecture about the importance of giving back or gratitude ever could What does it look like to fight for other people s children as if the future of your own child depended on it What choices would you make Best Colleges 2025 ,2024 Offers advice for high school students and their families regarding how to find the most suitable colleges to navigate the application process and to pay for a college education In a colorful magazine style format Best
